MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Media seating in the Smith Center is located in section 212. Seats will be prioritized for media who regularly cover Carolina Basketball, the visiting team and national media.

Credential requests may be made online. Email Steve Kirschner at stevekirschner@unc.edu for the link where you may submit your request.

Single-game requests should be made at least 14 days prior to a scheduled game, especially if you want a parking pass mailed to you.

All photo/TV passes will be issued on a game-by-game basis. There are no season photo/TV passes.

To access credential application

Approved credentials may be picked up at media will call at Smith Center Entrance D, which will open 90 minutes before the scheduled starting time. Entrance D is closest to the reserved parking lot behind the natatorium and the Smith Center/basketball offices.

All briefcases, computer bags and photo equipment are subject to search.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

The media work room is located on the ground floor adjacent to the visiting team's locker room. Seats are assigned. Overflow seats are available in the hall outside the media room. Media may also choose to work from their seat in section 212.

MEALS

Meals are provided at most games. Check with Steve Kirschner in advance if you have questions. Soft drinks and water are available while supplies last. There is a beverage cooler located just outside the media workroom.

Photo spots are assigned by half. Note your assigned seat may change by half. Credentials for photographers and videographers will be issued on a game-by-game basis and will be numbered to match the space on the baseline where they are assigned to shoot.

Workspace for photographers and videographers will be available in or just outside the media work room on the ground floor adjacent to the visiting team's locker room.

ARENA WiFi

Wireless Internet access is available in the arena. Instructions for logging on will be emailed to credentialed media. Please do not publicize the network or password for WiFi access. Live stats are available at UNC.statbroadcast.com.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is located in the Bowles Lot on Skipper Bowles Drive. Parking, if requested and approved at least 14 days before the game, will either be mailed to you or you may pick up at the Athletic Communications office in advance. If you make your request fewer than 14 days before a scheduled game, we are unable to mail you the parking. To get a parking pass you would need to either pick up in person in advance or provide us your Fed Ex number. Please note, you must have a parking pass to enter the media lot on the day of a game. You can't park first and then get your parking pass at our office.

GPS Directions: Skipper Bowles Lot, S-11, UNC campus (there is no street address number for this lot).

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Carolina head coach Hubert Davis will conduct a postgame press conference in the media workroom. UNC players will be available for interviews in the team dining room just off the home tunnel.

Interviews with the visiting team at the Smith Center will be handled on a per-game basis. The visiting team may use the press room for an interview with the head coach, but it may choose to do so via Zoom or make its coach and players available for questions outside their locker room.

NON-GAMEDAY INTERVIEWS

Throughout the season, Davis and players will be available a day or two before select games. The schedule of these sessions will be updated throughout the season in UNC's media game notes.

Interview requests should be made through the athletic communications office. Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Coach Davis. Due to contractual obligations, Davis is unable to participate in live radio call-in shows.

To access the media central landing page on GoHeels.com

Media should direct player interview requests to Matt Bowers (mattbowers@unc.edu, 919-619-7021). Player interviews typically occur before practice. Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days.

ACC COACHES ZOOM

Beginning in January, Coach Davis will be available most Mondays for 10 minutes on the ACC media Zoom. Coaches do not participate if their teams play that evening.

ONLINE & SOCIAL MEDIA

Carolina's official website is GoHeels.com, which features the media guide, record book, statistics, game notes, roster, schedule, archives and other information. Archived recordings of the weekly and postgame press conferences will be posted to the site. Follow the Tar Heels on Twitter and Instagram at @UNC_Basketball. A stats and notes Twitter feed is available at @UNCMBBStats.

HEAD COACH HUBERT DAVIS
4th Year as Head Coach, 13th on UNC Coaching Staff

Hubert Davis is in his fourth season as head coach at his alma mater and his 13th on the Tar Heel coaching staff.

Davis, 54 (turns 55 on May 17, 2025), has won National and ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors, led the Tar Heels to 78 wins, a 43-17 record in ACC play, a Final Four berth, an ACC regular-season championship, 19 road wins and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament in his first three years as head coach. Two of his Tar Heels – Armando Bacot and RJ Davis – are among the top-five scorers in Carolina history and have set numerous records for scoring, rebounding, three-pointers and double-doubles and earned national and All-ACC awards.

Davis has led UNC to 78 wins, the second most among UNC head coaches and the fourth most by a head coach in a power 4 conference in their first three seasons. Bill Guthridge won 80 for the Tar Heels from 1997-2000, Davis has 78 and Roy Williams won 75 from 2003-06. Davis and Guthridge are the only Tar Heel coaches to win 20 or more games in each of their first three seasons.

Under Davis, Carolina is 7-2 in NCAA Tournament play, including wins against three national championship-winning coaches (Baylor's Scott Drew, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski and Michigan State's Tom Izzo) and two other coaches who have taken teams to the Final Four (Marquette's Shaka Smart and UCLA's Mick Cronin).

Last year the Tar Heels were rewarded for winning the ACC regular-season title with a No. 1 seed in the NCAA West Regional, where they advanced to the Sweet 16. Davis was the fourth UNC head coach to earn a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament with Dean Smith, Guthridge and Williams.

Davis has led the Tar Heels to 13 wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including eight victories over top-10 teams (No. 4 Duke, No. 4 Baylor and No. 9 Duke in 2022; No. 6 Virginia in 2023; and No. 10 Tennessee, No. 7 Oklahoma, No. 7 Duke and No. 9 Duke in 2024). Davis, Guthridge and Williams are the only UNC coaches with eight wins over top-10 teams in their first three seasons (all with eight).

He was the 2024 ACC Coach of the Year. He received 49 of the 75 votes to become the fifth different Tar Heel head coach to win the award (Frank McGuire, Smith, Guthridge and Williams). Davis also won ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Associated Press, was the NABC's District 3 Coach of the Year and a semifinalist for the 2024 Naismith National Coach of the Year, the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year, the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year awards.

The 2023-24 Tar Heels went 17-3 to win the regular-season ACC championship. The 17 wins tied the single-season ACC record for regular-season wins (Virginia was 17-1 in 2017-18), and the 17-3 record was the best since the ACC went to a 20-game schedule in 2019-20.

Carolina went 8-2 on the road in the ACC. That was the second time in Davis' three seasons the Tar Heels won seven or more road games in ACC play (7-3 in 2022). UNC clinched sole possession of first place in the 2024 ACC standings with an 84-79 win at ninth-ranked Duke. It was the second time in three seasons the Tar Heels closed the regular season with a victory at Duke.

RJ Davis was a landslide winner in the voting for 2024 ACC Player of the Year, was a unanimous first-team All-America (Associated Press, USBWA, NABC and Sporting News) and became the first Tar Heel to win the Jerry West Shooting Guard Award. He set UNC's single-season points record for a guard (784) and the made the most three-pointers in a season by a Tar Heel (113)

Bacot earned his third All-ACC award in 2024 and third-team All-America honors (USBWA) and was a finalist for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center Award. He finished his career as UNC's all-time leader in rebounds and double-doubles and second in scoring and is among the top 10 in ACC history in each of those categories and top 10 in NCAA history in rebounds and double-doubles.

Davis led the Tar Heels to the 2022 NCAA East Regional championship, a win at Cameron Indoor Stadium in Mike Krzyzewski's final home game, another win over the Blue Devils in a historic Final Four matchup and a berth in the national championship game in his first season as a head coach. The 1992 graduate of the University of North Carolina received two National Coach-of-the-Year awards as UNC won 17 of its last 21 games and came within a few possessions of securing the program's seventh NCAA Tournament title.

He was named the 20th head coach of the UNC men's basketball program on April 5, 2021, becoming the fourth former Tar Heel player to become UNC's head coach and the first Black head coach in Carolina men's basketball history.

Davis played for Dean Smith at Carolina from 1988-92 and was an assistant coach on Roy Williams' staff from 2012-21. He played a key role coaching, recruiting and scouting and was the head coach of the UNC jun-ior varsity program for six seasons from 2013-19.

"I said (to Coach Davis) keep what's good but don't get stuck," UNC Director of Athletics Bubba Cunningham told the media at the 2022

Final Four. "Change what needs to be changed to be modern and current. And I think that's what Hubert brings — a current mentality to the historical tradition and success that we've had."

Davis led the Tar Heels to a 29-10 record in his rookie season as head coach. UNC went 15-5 in the ACC to tie Notre Dame for second place, just a game out of first. The Tar Heels went 7-3 on the road in league play, including five straight victories at Clemson, Louisville, Virginia Tech, NC State and fourth-ranked Duke when UNC won 11 of 13 games to conclude the regular season.

The 29 wins were the second most by an individual in his first season as Carolina's head coach and equaled the 10th most in NCAA history for a first-year head coach.

UNC entered the 2022 NCAA Tournament as an eight seed but played some of its best basketball in winning the East Regional. The Tar Heels had 51 assists on 62 field goals and sank 24 three-pointers in the first- and second-round wins over Marquette and Baylor, when they routed the Golden Eagles by 32 points and elimi-nated the defending NCAA champion Bears in overtime.

Carolina trailed UCLA with two minutes left in the Sweet 16 but went on an 8-0 run to beat the Bruins and overpowered Saint Peter's, 69-49, in the regional final to send the Tar Heels to the Final Four for a record 21st time.

"I want every player that played for Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams, whether it's in per-son, TV, highlights — I want them to be able to identify and go, 'That's the Carolina I went to,'" Davis said during the Final Four. "It's really important for me that this program, with my own personality in my own shoes, looks exactly like the program that Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams ran."

Davis became just the second individual to play for and serve as head coach of the same school in Final Four history; the fourth to take his team to the national championship game in his first season as a head coach; the seventh to play in and be a head coach in the Final Four; and the 10th to lead his team to the Final Four in his first season as a head coach.

The Tar Heels defeated Duke, 81-77, in the national semifinals, the first time the two great rivals ever played in the NCAA Tournament. The game featured a dozen ties and 18 lead changes, 13 of which came in the second half. Over the final 15:42, the margin for either team exceeded a single possession for a little more than just one minute. Carolina would score nine different times in the second half either to break a tie or reverse the lead, including field goals or free throws by all five Tar Heel starters.

"Hubert Davis may be the nicest person I know, and he's the best father I've ever seen," Jay Bilas said to the Washington Post in New Orleans. "He's a perfect balance of cutthroat competitor and incredibly nice, thoughtful, empathetic person. He is an amazing person, and I'm not at all surprised knowing him that he is having this level of success this early."

"I tell the parents, 'I'm not your son's parent, but every decision I make will be filtered through what is in the best interests for your son and what I think you would do for your son,'" says Davis. "So, the same way I care for my three children is the same way I care for the players. I just want things to work out for them. Be-ing a father helps me relate to the players because that's the way I coach."

Davis led Carolina to wins in March and April over the No. 4 (twice), No. 9 and No. 11-ranked teams in the AP poll. He won the Big House Gaines Award (National Sports Media Association) and John McLendon Award (CollegeInsider.com) as National Coach of the Year.

Each of Carolina's starters made significant contributions to the team's success in Davis's first season as head coach.

Bacot earned third-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors, setting the single-season UNC record with 511 rebounds and tying David Robinson's NCAA record with 31 double-doubles; Brady Manek was named the top transfer in the country, coming to UNC after four seasons at Oklahoma, led the ACC in three-point per-centage and averaged more than 18 points in three games vs. Duke; RJ Davis and Caleb Love alternated at point and shooting guard – Davis had 12 assists in the NCAA first round and 30 points vs. Baylor in round two; Love scored 30 against UCLA then 28 in the Final Four win over Duke; and Leaky Black became a lockdown de-fender, earning ACC All-Defensive team honors.

"It shows how much he cares about us and cares about the game," Love said during the NCAA Tournament. "We knew all along his passion, and we carried that with us. We feed off him and his energy. That's why you see us playing so hard for him."

"I just think Hubert is perfect for the job," Williams told USA Today during the Final Four. "He's the nicest person I've ever known but then he's also fiercely competitive. When you put those two together, it's a pretty good mix. It's why I asked him to join our staff. But he hasn't just had me as an influence. He had Coach (Dean) Smith, Don Nelson and Pat Riley from when he was a player. He's got all of us, but then found a way to make it his. This run, he's put his fingerprints on it. It's his team. He's put Hubert Davis's stamp on North Carolina basketball. He's been absolutely sensational."

"I've never known a finer person in my entire life, who has a switch he turns on and can be as competitive as anybody around," says Williams. "He loves this program and has the same passion I do, and he'll be better than me."

In nine seasons on the bench with Williams, the Tar Heels played in eight NCAA Tournaments, advanced to the Final Four and national championship games in 2016 and 2017 and won the NCAA title in 2017. The Tar Heels went 228-95, including 107-60 in Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season play, winning the regular-season ACC title in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and the ACC Tournament title in 2016.

Carolina earned three No. 1 seeds and a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament in those nine seasons. The four-year run from 2016-19 was the best four-year NCAA seed average in UNC basketball history.

Davis helped coach 15 players who have played in the NBA, including 11 first-round draft picks – Cole Anthony, Tony Bradley, Reggie Bullock, P.J. Hairston, Justin Jackson, Brice Johnson, Cameron Johnson, Walker Kessler, Nassir Little, Day'Ron Sharpe and Coby White.

Brice Johnson and Jackson were consensus first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC selections; Jackson was the 2017 ACC Player of the Year and Cameron Johnson earned first-team All-ACC honors.

Jackson and Cameron Johnson are among the top three-pointer scorers in Carolina history. Johnson trans-ferred to UNC from Pittsburgh and blossomed into the 11th pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Davis also coached Marcus Paige, who earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore in 2014 and set the UNC career record with 299 three-pointers, and Joel Berry II, the 2017 Final Four Most Outstanding Player.

Anthony set the ACC record for most points in a college debut and had the second-highest single-season scoring average by a Tar Heel freshman.

White set the UNC single-season record for most threes by a freshman and became the seventh pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Davis worked for seven years with ESPN as an analyst and co-host of the College GameDay program.

Born in Winston-Salem, N.C., Davis grew up in Burke, Va., where he attended Lake Braddock High School, the same high school UNC and US Soccer star Mia Hamm attended. Davis was a high school football team-mate of future Olympic hurdles gold medalist Allen Johnson.

Davis played in 137 games as a Tar Heel from 1988-92, during which UNC went 102-37, won the 1989 and 1991 ACC Tournaments and played in the 1991 Final Four. He scored 1,615 points, an average of 11.8 per game. He still holds the UNC record for career three-point percentage at .435 (197 of 453). He scored in dou-ble figures 80 times with 23 games scoring 20 or more points.

"In 1987-88, I went with Coach Smith into Hubert's home," says Williams, who was an assistant at UNC when Davis was being recruited. "Coach Smith said, 'I don't know if you're ever going to be able to play here, Hubert, and I don't want to do this.' I got in the car with Coach, and I said, 'Coach, I think he'll play more than you think he will because I think he's so competitive and so driven.' Hubert told Coach Smith, 'You'll never know unless you give me a chance.' Coach Smith a couple days later called him and said, 'I listened to what you said and I'm going to offer you a scholarship to North Carolina.' Hubert committed to Coach Smith right then."

He scored in double figures in each of his last eight NCAA Tournament games, averaging 18.5 points in those games. That included 19 against Temple in the 1991 NCAA East Regional final and 25 against Kansas (coached by Williams) in the 1991 Final Four.

Davis averaged 21.4 points and earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior. He scored in double figures in 32 of 33 games that season, including 20 games with 20 or more points and 30 or more in four games. He netted a career-high 35 points at Duke on March 8, 1992. That 35-point game was part of a seven-game stretch late in the season in which he averaged 28.7 points.

The New York Knicks selected Davis with the 20th pick in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft. He played 12 seasons in the NBA, scoring 5,583 points, an average of 8.2 per contest. He made 728 three-point field goals and enters the 2024-25 season second in NBA history in career three-point percentage at .441.

Davis averaged double-figure scoring in four different seasons – a career-high 11.1 with Dallas in 1997-98 and with the Knicks in 1993-94 (11.0), 1994-95 (10.0) and 1995-96 (10.7).

He scored a career-high 32 points twice – as a second-year pro with the Knicks vs. Minnesota and in 2000 with Dallas against Seattle.

In 1993-94, he was fourth on the Knicks in scoring behind Patrick Ewing, John Starks and Charles Oakley as New York won 57 games and advanced to the NBA Finals, where they took Hakeem Olajuwon, Clyde Drexler and Kenny Smith to seven games (Doc Rivers and Greg Anthony were also Knicks that season).

He shot 40 percent or better from three-point range in eight seasons, including 1999-2000, when he led the NBA with a career-best 49.1 percent as a Maverick.

Davis shot 80 percent or better from the free throw line nine times. He connected on 83.7 percent of his ca-reer free throw attempts.

Davis played for NBA head coaches Pat Riley, Don Nelson, Jim Cleamons, Leonard Hamilton, Doug Collins, Rick Carlisle and Larry Brown. His NBA teammates included Anthony, Chauncey Billups, Ewing, Michael Finley, Richard Hamilton, Michael Jordan, Jason Kidd, Steve Nash, Dirk Nowitzki and Rivers.

"Hubert carved out a remarkable career in both longevity and achievement," said Jeff Van Gundy when Da-vis was named head coach. "He will go down as one of the GREAT shooters of his era and had an underrated pick and roll game. Hubert was what you want in a player...dependable, reliable, trustworthy and his work ethic were second to none. Hubert's character, basketball acumen and love of UNC will drive him in his quest to continue the long and storied championship tradition that he helped create as a player and as an assistant coach. I have no doubt that Hubert will be the next in line of Hall of Fame coaches from Chapel Hill with an NCAA championship in the near future."

Hubert's uncle, Walter, starred at UNC from 1973-77 and was a six-time NBA All-Star. He was the NBA Rookie of the Year in 1978 with the Phoenix Suns, who retired his jersey number. Walter passed away in No-vember 2023 and was elected to the Naismith Hall of Fame in April 2024.

Davis graduated from UNC in 1992 with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Leslie, have three children – Elijah, Gracie and Micah. Elijah is in his first season as a member of the UNC basketball team after three seasons at the University of Lynchburg, while Gracie is a sophomore at Carolina.

The Davises are active members of the Chapel Hill/Carrboro community, participating in numerous civic en-deavors, including their support of the Hargraves Community Center.

"Hubert and Leslie have been very intentional in not only meeting the needs of the kids but also the people in the community," says John French, the recreation supervisor at Hargraves. "The Davises have touched so many lives at Hargraves. I could talk about them all day and still wouldn't be able to give them all the flowers they deserve."

BRAD FREDERICK
ASSISTANT COACH

This is Brad Frederick's 12th season on the men's basketball staff at Carolina, having played for the Tar Heels under Dean Smith and Bill Guthridge. He is in his fourth year as an assistant under head coach Hubert Davis following eight seasons as a member of Roy Williams' staff.

Frederick helped Carolina win the 2024 ACC regular-season championship and earn a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. In 2022, Carolina won the East Regional and beat Duke in the national semifinal in New Orleans to advance to the national championship game in Frederick's fifth trip to the Final Four. As a player the Tar Heels appeared in two Final Fours, and he was on Williams' staff when UNC played in the 2016 and 2017 Final Fours.

He has coached 22 players who have earned All-ACC honors, two ACC Players of the Year and three first-team All-Americas.

Frederick joined Williams' staff at UNC in 2013. That came after 14 seasons under the direction of Kev-in Stallings at Vanderbilt.

As a player, Frederick began his career on the junior varsity team as a freshman, where he played for Phil Ford. He earned a promotion to the UNC varsity as a sophomore in Dean Smith's final season as head coach and played two seasons under head coach Bill Guthridge. The Tar Heels went 86-21 in his three seasons on the varsity. He played in 70 games and was part of UNC teams that won the 1997 and 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament titles and reached two Final Fours.

Frederick played on Tar Heel teams that featured future NBA standouts Vince Carter and Antawn Jamison, as well as point guard Ed Cota. He was one of three seniors in 1999 along with Ademola Okulaja and Scott Williams.

Since joining the UNC staff, Carolina had its highest four-year NCAA seed run ever (three No. 1s and a No. 2 from 2016-19), won the 2017 NCAA title, played in the 2016 and 2022 national championship games, won three NCAA regionals, three regular-season ACC titles and an ACC Tournament title.

Frederick began his coaching career in 2000 at Vanderbilt. During his final season at Vanderbilt, Fred-erick held the longest tenure of any assistant coach in the Southeastern Conference. While in Nashville, the Commodores won an SEC Tournament title, were ranked in the final AP poll and played in the NCAA Tournament six times, advancing twice to the NCAA Sweet 16.

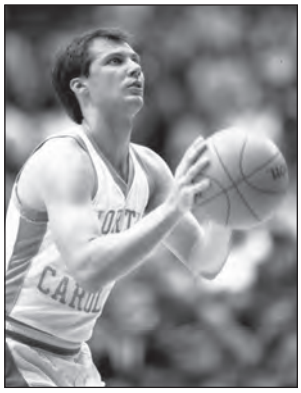
Frederick is married to the former Jocelyn Isenburg. They have two sons, Benjamin and Sawyer, and a daughter, Carson. Brad's father, the late Dr. Bob Frederick, was the athletic director at Kansas for 14 years and served as chairman of the NCAA Division I Basketball Committee.

JEFF LEBO
ASSISTANT COACH

Jeff Lebo is in his fourth season as assistant coach at UNC, where he starred as a sharp-shooting guard from 1985-89 under legendary head coach Dean Smith.

The captain of the 1989 Atlantic Coast Conference champions and a 20-year veteran as a collegiate head coach joined the basketball staff at his alma mater prior to the 2021-22 season. In his first three sea-sons as the most veteran member of Hubert Davis' staff, the Tar Heels have won 78 games, including going 43-17 in ACC play, earned a Final Four berth, an ACC regular-season championship and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Lebo played at UNC for Smith and assistant coaches Bill Guthridge, Eddie Fogler, Roy Williams and Phil Ford. He was a teammate for one season at UNC with current head coach Hubert Davis.



In 1989, Lebo won the Patterson Medal, the most prestigious award given annually to a Tar Heel stu-dent-athlete based on exceptional career achievements. Following his senior season, Lebo held at least 10 UNC records. He was Carolina's leader in single-game and career three-pointers made, single-season and career three-point percentage, career three-point attempts, single-season and career free throw percentage, consecutive made free throws, single-game assists and career assist-turnover ratio.

Following his playing career in Chapel Hill, Lebo played part of one season with the San Antonio Spurs, then embarked on a coaching career during which he spent eight seasons at three schools as an assistant coach and 20 seasons as head coach at Tennessee Tech, Chattanooga, Auburn and ECU. He also was an assistant coach with the Greensboro Swarm, the G-League affiliate of the Charlotte Hornets, in 2019-20.

Lebo was 327-278 (.540) as a head coach, winning 20 or more games five times, including at least one season at all four schools. His 2001-02 Tennessee Tech team went 27-7 in winning the Ohio Valley Con-ference regular-season title for the second consecutive season. His teams also won 24 games at Auburn in 2008-09, 23 at ECU in 2012-13, 21 at Chattanooga in 2002-03 and 20 at Tennessee Tech in 2000-01.

The Carlisle, Pa., native won 116 games at ECU, establishing him as the Pirates' winningest coach since the program joined Division I in 1965. He was ECU's first coach to win 20 games in D-I and is second all-time at ECU in wins at any level. Lebo's teams set ECU records for points, three-point field goals, assists, blocks, steals and fewest turnovers per game.

Six Pirates earned all-conference honors, including Maurice Kemp, who in 2013 became the school's only Conference USA scoring champion and first-team All-Conference USA selection. In 2014, Akeem Richmond led Division I with 155 threes.

Lebo began his coaching career as an assistant at ETSU from 1990-92, then joined Fogler at Vanderbilt for the 1992-93 season. The Commodores won the SEC championship and advanced to the Sweet 16. He coached with Fogler at South Carolina from 1993-98, winning an SEC title in 1997 and playing in two NCAA Tournaments.

In 1998-99 he began his head coaching career at Tennessee Tech, where he inherited a program that was coming off four consecutive losing seasons. In his third season the Golden Eagles won 20 games for the first time since 1946-47. They won a school-record 27 games in 2001-02, earning the school's first post-season appearance since 1963. Tennessee Tech won three times in the 2002 NIT before losing at eventual champion Memphis.

Lebo was named OVC Coach of the Year in 2000, 2001 and 2002 and the 2002 NABC District 7 Coach of the Year.

He then accepted the head coaching position at Chattanooga, where he took over a program without a re-turning starter or a signee for the upcoming season. However, he led the Mocs to a 21-9 mark in the first season, the program's first 20-win season in six years.

Chattanooga averaged 81-plus points and ranked among the nation's top eight in scoring both seasons.

In 2004, Lebo was named head coach at Auburn, where the Tigers were facing NCAA sanctions. His teams won 96 games in six seasons, including 24, then the second-most in Auburn history, in 2008-09.

As a player at North Carolina, Lebo's teams went 116-25 overall, including 44-12 in regular-season ACC play, won the ACC regular-season title in 1987 and 1988, the ACC Tournament in 1989, and advanced to two NCAA regional finals and two other Sweet 16s.

He scored 1,567 points (11.8 ppg), had 580 assists, 159 steals, made 211 of 493 three-pointers (.428) and was 308 of 367 from the free throw line (.839). He was 15th in UNC career scoring when he conclud-ed his career (currently is 29th) and was third in assists behind only Kenny Smith and Phil Ford.

Lebo was the first Tar Heel to make 200 three-pointers (currently seventh) and has the highest percent-age of the seven players who have made 200 and the second-highest (behind only Hubert Davis) of players with 100 or more. He holds the fourth- and sixth-highest single-season three-point percentages by a Tar Heel (.464 in 1987-88 and .450 in 1986-87).

As a senior he set the school record, which still stands, for consecutive made free throws with 41, breaking Bobby Lewis's record of 39, which had been set in 1966. Lebo's streak of 41 currently equals the eighth-longest in ACC history.

He currently is fifth at UNC in career free throw percentage and has the fourth-best single-season per-centage (.878 in 1987-88).

Lebo scored in double figures 80 times with 20 or more points 15 times. That included a career-high 29 against Indiana on Nov. 25, 1988, in Madison Square Garden.

He set a UNC single-game record with 17 assists against Chattanooga on Nov. 19, 1988, which was one of six games in which he had 10 or more assists (he had three points-assists double-doubles). His career assist-error ratio of 2.21 (580 assists, 263 turnovers) also was a UNC record and is currently third all-time.

He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a junior, was a member of three ACC All-Tournament teams, including first-team honors in 1987 and 1989, and was a USBWA All-District selection in 1988. He won a silver medal playing for Team USA in the 1987 Pan Am Games in Indianapolis.

He was a high school All-America at Carlisle High School, where he played for his father, Dave. They won the Class 4A championship in 1985, capping a career in which Carlisle went 108-9.

Lebo and his wife, Melissa, a native of Williamston, N.C., and 1991 UNC graduate, are the parents of two daughters, Addison and Mills, and a son, Creighton, a member of the Carolina Basketball team for the previous four seasons. Creighton is a graduate manager on this year's team.

SEAN MAY
ASSISTANT COACH

Sean May, the Most Outstanding Player of the 2005 NCAA Final Four, is in his fourth season as assistant coach and 10th on the basketball staff at his alma mater. In his first three seasons on the bench, May helped lead UNC to the 2022 Final Four and a berth in the national championship game, a regular-season ACC championship and No. 1 NCAA Tournament seed in 2024.

May mentored Armando Bacot, who set UNC career records for rebounds and double-doubles, finished second in UNC scoring and was top 10 in the ACC in all three categories. Bacot was the MVP of the 2022 NCAA East Regional, became the first player in NCAA history with double-doubles in six NCAA Tournament games in one season and compiled the most rebounds by any college basketball player in 60 seasons.

May was director of basketball operations for four seasons under Hall of Fame head coach Roy Williams. While working for Williams, he helped the Tar Heels advance to consecutive national championship games and the 2017 NCAA title.

May played three seasons at Carolina from 2002-05, becoming the first Tar Heel in more than 30 years to average a double-double for his career. The Bloomington, Ind., native averaged 15.8 points and 10.0 re-bounds in 77 games (he missed 24 games as a freshman due to a broken bone in his foot).

May scored 26 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the 2005 national championship game victory over Illinois, a game played on his 21st birthday. He was sensational through-out Carolina's six-game march to the national title, averaging 22.3 points and 10.7 rebounds. He made 52 of 78 shots from the floor in the NCAA Tournament, an astonishing 66.7 percent.

He scored 19, 24, 14, 29 (in the regional final vs. Wisconsin), 22 (in the national semifinal vs. Michigan State) and 26 points.

May's 48 points in the 2005 Final Four remain the most by any Most Outstanding Player since Carmelo Anthony scored 53 in 2003. He is the first Tar Heel to win Most Outstand-ing Player honors to become an assistant coach for Carolina.

He was selected Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Year as a ju-nior after averaging 17.5 points and 10.5 rebounds, shooting 56.7 percent from the floor and posting 18 double-doubles, including eight in a row and 13 in UNC's final 16 games. He set UNC's single-season record with 397 rebounds and scored a career-best 32 points against Florida State.

In 2005, he was also named the ACC's Top Male Athlete, a first-team All-America (Rupp, ESPN.com), second-team All-America (USBWA), first-team All-ACC and MVP of the NCAA East Regional.

In his final home game at the Dean E. Smith Center, May had 26 points and 24 rebounds against Duke, a 75-73 win that clinched the ACC regular-season title. The 24 rebounds are still the most by any player in a game in Smith Center history. Over his sophomore and junior seasons, May averaged 19.5 points and 19.5 rebounds in four games against the Blue Devils.

In addition to the 24 rebounds vs. Duke, as a junior May had 19 vs. Ken-tucky, 18 at Duke and 17 in the NCAA Tournament vs. Iowa State. He also had a pair of 21-rebound games as a sophomore against Akron and Duke.

In 2004, May became the first sophomore to lead the ACC in rebounding since Tim Duncan in 1995 and earned second-team All-ACC and second-team All-America honors (ESPN.com).

May shared USA Basketball's co-Male Athlete of the Year award in 2004 with Chris Paul.

His three-year, 77-game totals at Carolina included 1,213 points, 771 rebounds, 94 blocks and 100 steals. He shot 51.3 percent from the floor.

May entered the NBA Draft after his junior season and earned his degree in 2009. Due to injuries, he was limited to 119 NBA games over four sea-sons. He scored a career-high 32 points against Dwight How-ard and the Orlando Magic and averaged a career-high 11.9 points and 6.7 rebounds for Charlotte in 2006-07. He also played professionally overseas.

May is one of four father-son combinations to win NCAA titles. His dad, Scott, was the 1976 National Player of the Year and led Indiana to a per-fect 32-0 season and NCAA title.

May played at Bloomington North High School, where he won Mr. Basketball honors in the state of Indi-ana in 2001 and was a three-time all-state selection.

He and his wife, Grace, have four daughters – Layla, Lilianna, London and Luna.

MARCUS PAIGE
ASSISTANT COACH, JV COACH

Marcus Paige, the only three-time captain in UNC basketball history, is in his second season as an assis-tant coach. Paige returned to Chapel Hill after a seven-year career playing professional basketball.

Paige played for the Tar Heels from 2012-16 and concluded his career 11th at Carolina in scoring with 1,844 points, first in three-pointers (299), third in steals (203), fourth in free throw percentage (.844) and eighth in assists (602). He made more threes in NCAA Tournament play than any other Tar Heel (39) and was the only player in NCAA Tournament his-tory to make multiple three-pointers in all 13 games in which he played.

The Marion, Iowa, native was first-team All-ACC and a second-team All-America as a sophomore, a sec-ond-team All-ACC selection in 2015, an honorable mention All-America in 2016, was Carolina's Most Valuable Player in 2014 and 2015 and is the only Tar Heel to win the team's defensive player of the year award four times. He was twice named National Player of the Week and was ACC Player of the Week four times in 2014, when he became the first Tar Heel point guard to earn first-team All-ACC honors as a soph-omore since Phil Ford in 1976.

Paige finished his collegiate career as one of two players in ACC history (with Duke's Jason Williams) to amass 1,800 points, 500 assists, 350 rebounds, 275 three-pointers and 200 steals.

As a senior in 2016, he led UNC to an ACC Tournament championship then shot nearly 49 percent from three in six games in the NCAA Tournament. He hit six three-pointers against Indiana in the Sweet 16 and led the Tar Heels to the national champion-ship game against Villanova. His double-clutch, off-balance three-pointer to tie the game with 4.7 seconds remaining is one of the most memorable shots in Final Four history.

He scored a career-high 35 points, including the game-winner with 0.9 seconds to play in overtime, in an 85-84 win at NC State on Feb. 26, 2014. He scored 31 of his 35 points in the second half and over-time.

Paige excelled academically. He was one of three players in ACC history (with Maryland's Tom McMillen and Duke's Mike Gminski) to earn Academ-ic All-America honors three times (second team twice and first team as a senior) and won the Skip Prosser Award as the ACC's top scholar-athlete in basketball in 2015 and 2016. He was a finalist as a senior for the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar award.

He was selected in the second round of the 2016 NBA Draft and played two seasons in the NBA Devel-opment League (in Salt Lake City and Greensboro) and in five games with the Charlotte Hornets in 2017-18. Paige played three years in Belgrade, Serbia, where his team won two league titles, one year in France and an injury-shortened season in Spain.

His wife, Taylor, also graduated from Carolina. They have a daughter, Maya.

PAT SULLIVAN
ASSISTANT COACH

Pat Sullivan is in his 12th season as a Tar Heel, including five as a player (1990-95) and seven in two different stints on Dean Smith's, Bill Guth-ridge's and Hubert Davis' staffs.

In his first three seasons in his second stint as a member of the UNC coaching staff the Tar Heels have won 78 games, including 43-17 in ACC play, earned a Final Four berth, an ACC regular-season champi-onship and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

The 2022 Final Four was Pat Sullivan's seventh as a Tar Heel. He played in 1991, 1993 and 1995, was on Smith's staff in 1997, an assistant coach in 1998 and 2000 and the 2022 Final Four capped his first season as director of recruiting for Davis, a former UNC teammate.

Carolina won the 1993 NCAA championship in Sullivan's junior season.

He has played in more NCAA Tournament games (19) and more NCAA Tournament wins (17) than any Tar Heel in history and is one of seven Tar Heels who have played in three Final Fours.

Sullivan was a member of Hall of Famer Larry Brown's staff with the De-troit Pistons when they won the NBA championship in 2003-04. He served as assistant coach with the Pistons in 2004-05, with the New Jersey Nets from 2005-08, the Pistons again from 2008-11, the Washington Wizards from 2012-16, the Los Angeles Clippers from 2016-18 and the New York Knicks from 2018-20. In 2020-21, he was a player de-velopment and defensive assistant with the Minnesota Timberwolves.

As an NBA assistant coach, Sul-livan worked for numerous head coaches, including Brown, Doc Riv-ers, Lawrence Frank and Randy Witt-man, and helped coach a number of former Tar Heel standouts and other NBA stars, including: Bradley Beal, Chauncey Billups, Reggie Bullock, Vince Carter, Ed Davis, Wayne El-lington, Raymond Felton, Blake Griffin, Richard Hamilton, Richard Jefferson, Allen Iverson, Jason Kidd, Tracy McGrady, Chris Paul, Paul Pierce, Julius Randle, D'Angelo Russell, Karl-Anthony Towns, John Wall, Ben Wallace and Rasheed Wallace.

The Bogota, N.J., native (buh-GO-tuh) scored 478 points in 118 games as a Tar Heel, netting a career-high 18 points against Old Dominion on 12/1/92, one of 12 games in which he scored in double figures. He famously made the front end of a 1-and-1 with 20 seconds to play in the 1993 NCAA title game against Michigan to give UNC a two-point lead, a game the Tar Heels went on to win, 77-71.

Sullivan averaged a career-best 6.4 points as a junior, when the Tar Heels went 34-4 en route to the na-tional title. The Tar Heels advanced to the ACC Tournament championship game in each of his five sea-sons as a player, winning the title in 1991 and 1994.

He was a college teammate with Davis from 1990-92 and was on the Pistons' staff in 2003 when Davis played in Detroit for half a season.

He won UNC's Butch Bennett Award as a freshman for dedication, sportsmanship and sacrifice for the good of the team; was the recipient of the 1993-94 Rick Sharp Award, given to the player who contributed the most in practice and behind the scenes; and was a team captain and the Most Inspirational Player in 1994-95.

Prior to joining the Carolina coaching staff in October 1997, Sullivan was the head coach at Hale High School in Raleigh in 1995-96 and spent a season on Coach Smith's staff as an administrative assistant and assis-tant video coordinator.

He and his wife, Sara, have a son, Collin, and daughter, Olivia.

Why Tar Heels as a Nickname?

The term "tar heel" dates back to North Carolina's early Colonial history, when the state was a leading producer of supplies for the naval industry. Workers who distilled turpentine from the sticky sap of pine trees and burned pine boughs to produce tar and pitch often went barefoot during hot summer months and undoubtedly collected tar on their heels. To call someone a "rosin heel" or "tar heel" was to imply they that they worked in a lowly trade.

During the Civil War, North Carolina soldiers flipped the meaning of the term, and turned an epithet into an accolade. They called themselves "tar heels" as an expression of state pride. Others adopted the term and North Carolina became widely known as the "Tar Heel State."

Why Carolina Blue?

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. Most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white. Since society membership was compulsory for all students, the opinions and activities of these organizations were by nature of circumstances all embracing.

Why is the Mascot a Ram?

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. The explanation dates back a century to 1924, offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak, but something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. State had a wolf for a mascot. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the star football playeer was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest. Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie. Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal.

Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck. Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE

Jan. 27, 1911: Carolina defeats Virginia Christian, 42-21, in first game. Marvin "Philly" Ritch, considered the Father of Carolina Basketball, is the team's first captain and leading scorer.

Feb. 22, 1913: Carolina plays the North Carolina College of Agricultural and Mechanic Arts (NC State) for the first time in any sport since 1906. The Tar Heels lost that first encounter, 26-18. The teams would not play again until the 1919 state championship.

Dec. 29, 1913: Meb Long, UNC's first great scorer, scored 23 points in a win over the Charlotte YMCA. Long became the first Tar Heel to score 20 points in a game. Two weeks earlier, Meb and Cyrus Long became the first brothers to play basketball for UNC.

Feb. 19, 1914: Ben Edwards plays for Guilford in a 38-13 Tar Heel victory. Earlier in the year, Edwards played in six games for Carolina, thus becoming the first and only player to play for and against UNC in the same season.

Feb. 20, 1915: Lynchburg YMCA beats Carolina, 63-20, the most lopsided loss in UNC history (43 points).

Jan. 24, 1920: Billy Carmichael scored 16 points in a 36-25 win over Trinity in the first-ever basketball game between the two schools located eight miles apart. Carmichael led the team in scoring in 1919-20 (10.8 ppg) and was later the University's controller and acting president. Carmichael Auditorium was named in his honor.

Feb. 26, 1921: Cartwright Carmichael scored 15 points in a win over Virginia and sets UNC's single-season scoring record, surpassing Meb Long. Carmichael would finish the season with 286 points.

March 1, 1922: Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald lead UNC to a 40-26 win over Mercer for Southern Conference Tournament title.

Feb. 29, 1924: En route to an undefeated season the Tar Heels play and beat Kentucky for the first time, a 41-20 win in the first round of the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta. Jack Cobb scored 17 points.

March 4, 1924: Jack Cobb's 15 points almost single-handedly outscores Alabama in a 26-16 win in the Southern Conference title game. UNC finishes 26-0 and the Helms Foundation later selects Carolina as national champions. Cobb leads all scorers with a single-season school record 353 points. Cobb, Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald combine to average 28 of UNC's 36.9 points per game.

Jan. 24, 1925: John Purser scores 10 points to lead UNC to a 25-21 win at Duke's Memorial Gymnasium. It was the first game ever played between North Carolina and Duke as the school formerly known as Trinity changed its name less than four weeks prior to the game.

Feb. 12, 1925: Head cheerleader Vic Huggins introduces Rameses, the school's first ram mascot, at halftime of UNC's 28-27 loss to South Carolina.

Feb. 18, 1926: A 17-8 loss to NC State marks the fewest points in UNC history, but two weeks later, Carolina beats Mississippi State to win the Southern Conference Tournament.

Feb. 27, 1932: Virgil Weathers' basket with less than 30 seconds to play gives Carolina a 43-42 win over Adolph Rupp's top-seed Kentucky in the second round of the Southern Conference Tournament. It would prove to be the final time the two schools played one another as members of the same conference.

1933-34: The first season in which Carolina wore numbers on its jerseys. Dave McCachren was captain, marking the first of four brothers from Charlotte (Jim 1936, Bill 1939 and George 1943) to captain the team.

Jan. 15, 1936: NYU beats the Tar Heels, 55-33, in Carolina's first game in Madison Square Garden.

March 7, 1936: Trailing 42-30 with less than 10 minutes to play, the Tar Heels go on a 20-3 run to defeat Washington & Lee, 50-45, to win the Southern Conference Tournament. The game was called the greatest comeback in the history of Southern basketball. Andy Bershak, who won All-America honors in football, scored the go-ahead basket and led UNC with 15 points.

Feb. 10, 1941: Two-time All-America George Glamack scores a record 45 points in 76-53 win over Clemson. Later that year, UNC loses to Pitt and Dartmouth in first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

March 21, 1946: 57-49 win over NYU in Madison Square Garden is Carolina's first in the NCAA Tournament. Five days later, Oklahoma A&M beats UNC, 43-40, in NCAA championship game. "Hook" Dillon scores 16 for Tar Heels in title game, but Bob Kurland leads A&M with 23.

Dec. 3, 1951: 100-57 win over Furman marks the first of 171 games in which Carolina scores 100 or more points. The Tar Heels are 153-18 in those games.

Lennie Rosenbluth, Al Lifson and Jerry Vayda. Lifson and Rosenbluth are two of the last four Tar Heels to hold UNC's career scoring record.

Phil Ford (right) congratulates Tyler Hansbrough after Hansbrough broke Ford's UNC scoring record. Ford held the mark from 1978-2009.

Recent research indicated Lennie Rosenbluth's single-season scoring total in 1956-57 should correctly be 897 points, two more than he had previously been credited. His career total should also be 2,047 points. The discrepancy originated in the national semifinal win over Michigan State. The NCAA's official box score and prominent newspapers such as the Daily Tar Heel, Lansing State Journal, Kansas City Times, Raleigh News and Dallas Morning News reported he scored 31 points. However, a second stat sheet typed after the game gave him 29 points and awarded the other two points to Bob Cunningham. UNC Athletics published an end-of-year review that included the box which showed him with 31 points, but the final stat sheet in that same publication listed him with only 895 points, which was two shy of what he should have been credited. The NCAA and ACC approved this statistical change.

Ed Shytle (left and above, front row third from the left wearing No. 13) played in 35 games for the Tar Heels from 1940-42. The Henderson County, N.C., native graduated in 1942 and enlisted in the Marines that October. He served in the Pacific Theater as a first lieutenant with Battery F in the 2nd Battalion, 14th Marines, 4th Division. In June 1944 he made an amphibious landing on the island of Saipan, where he was one of more than 2,900 Americans killed in that battle, one of the costliest of the war. He died four days after his 24th birthday and was buried in the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific in Honolulu.

Notes

This list comprises the most often-used starting lineups, in some cases a lineup where a player replaced an injured starter for a significant period of time or where a player (i.e. Rasheed Wallace in 1993-94) became a starter late in the season and started in the post-season.

In 1997-98, Carolina rotated six players in the starting lineup throughout the season.

Starters from 1911-56 researched and compiled by Ron Smith.

UNC 60, Ohio State 57 (OT) – NCAA East Regional Championship Game
March 23, 1946

Carolina trailed Ohio State by five points with three minutes to play in regulation and was without center Bones McKinney, who had fouled out. Bob Paxton hit a running one-hander with 20 seconds to play to tie the game at 54 to force overtime. In the extra period, Jim Jordan broke the tie with a free throw, and Don Anderson and Hook Dillon made field goals to send UNC to its first national championship game. The Raleigh News and Observer headlined the box score "Great Comeback."

UNC 70, NC State 69
January 24, 1953

Eighth-ranked NC State had won 15 straight in the series, but Frank McGuire led the Tar Heels to a road win in his first game vs. the Wolfpack as UNC's head coach. Jerry Vayda's jumper with 24 seconds to play gave Carolina the lead and NC State's leading scorer, Dave Gotkin, dribbled the ball off his foot before the Pack could get off a shot. Al Lifson (19) and Vayda (18) led UNC, which secured its first win ever over a ranked opponent.

The News and Observer noted both coaches wore identical ties and the game story led with "Everett Case's lucky brown suit is worn out at last."

1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. In the fourth game of the season, Tommy Kearns scored nine of his 29 points in overtime in a four-point win at South Carolina; win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime; Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke; and the Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win in the ACC Tournament semifinals. It was UNC's fourth win over the Deacons that season.

However, those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in Kansas City in the Final Four when the Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship.

The semifinal was tied at 29 at the half and 58 after regulation. Michigan State was at the free throw line leading, 64-62, with 11 seconds to play in the first overtime when Pete Brennan rebounded a miss and drove downcourt, stopping from 10 feet and hitting the tying shot with two seconds to play. In the third overtime, Lennie Rosenbluth scored four of his game-high 31 points to lead UNC to the title game.

The championship game matched No. 1 UNC vs. No. 2 Kansas, which was coached by Dick Harp, who later served on Dean Smith's staff at Carolina, and featured 7-1 center Wilt Chamberlain.

The Tar Heels led by 12 in the first half but needed a field goal by Joe Quigg and a Kearns free throw to send the game to overtime even at 46. Rosenbluth, who led UNC with 20 points, had fouled out with two minutes left in regulation, which forced Brennan, Kearns and Cunningham to play the entire 55 minutes.

In the third OT, Carolina led 52-48, but the Jayhawks rallied behind Chamberlain and took a 53-52 lead on a Gene Elstun free throw with 31 seconds to play. Quigg was fouled and made the go-ahead free throws with six seconds remaining and blocked Elstun's 15-footer for a 54-53 win and the title.

UNC 72, NC State 68 (OT)
January 14, 1959

It was the first meeting ever when UNC (No. 3) and NC State (No. 1) were both ranked in the top five and the Tar Heels prevailed, 72-68, in overtime. It was also the first of UNC's NCAA-record 14 wins over the No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll.

The Tar Heels made just 22 of 45 free throws but Harvey Salz led four in double figures with 19 points. Carolina's Ray Stanley scored the last four points of regulation to force extra time. With the game tied at 68, Doug Moe set up Lee Shaffer for a layup with 25 seconds to play for the game-winner.

UNC 76, Wake Forest 74
January 4, 1967

Rusty Clark tipped in a missed shot for the tying basket with 15 seconds to play and All-America Larry Miller stole a pass at midcourt and raced in for the game-winning layup as time expired in Carolina's 76-74 road victory. Miller (23), Clark (20 points and 13 rebounds) and Bobby Lewis (16) combined for 59 of UNC's 76 points.

UNC 87, Davidson 85 – NCAA East Regional Championship Game
March 15, 1969

Charlie Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

February 9, 1970

Fifth-ranked NC State scored 54 first-half points and led the Tar Heels by 10 at halftime in Chapel Hill before Carolina rallied for an 88-86 win. Charlie Scott had 33 points and 13 rebounds, scoring twice late to give UNC an 82-80 lead it would keep for the rest of the game. Jim Delaney secured the victory with a steal with six seconds to play as State hunted a game-tying field goal.

UNC 73, Duke 71
January 19, 1974

UNC 96, Duke 92 (OT)
March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak in-bounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 25-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

UNC 101, Wake Forest 100 (OT) – ACC Quarterfinal
March 6, 1975

Carolina trailed Wake Forest, 90-82, with 50 seconds remaining in the ACC quarterfinals. Phil Ford hit a 20-footer with 43 ticks left and Mitch Kupchak followed a Deacon turnover with a driving layup with 34 seconds to play. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

UNC 79, Notre Dame 77 – NCAA Sweet 16
March 17, 1977

Carolina's largest halftime deficit overcome to ever win an NCAA Tournament game came against 10th-ranked Notre Dame on St. Patrick's Day in College Park, Md.

Digger Phelps's Irish led UNC, 40-30, at the half and by 14 points early in the second period before Dean Smith switched to a full court press that sparked a 22-6 run over five minutes to give Carolina a 52-50 lead. The Irish then scored 10 straight points and went into its own Four Corners, but UNC forced five consecutive turnovers. Later, Walter Davis stole the ball and fed Phil Ford for a layup to tie the game at 75, then Ford made a steal and hit two free throws with 56 seconds to play to give UNC the lead. Notre Dame's Dick Williams quickly scored to tie the game, but Ford, who hyperextended his right elbow minutes earlier, was fouled with two seconds to play and hit both free throws to send Carolina to the East Regional final. Ford led all scorers with 29 points, making all nine of his free throws.

Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and led by 17 with 10:30 to play, but the Wolfpack got hot. Kenny Matthews hit a jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. Dudley Bradley missed a jumper for the Tar Heels and State grabbed the rebound with 16 seconds left. Reynolds Coliseum celebrated. But Bradley stole the ball from Clyde Austin at mid-court and drove in for the game-winning dunk and a 70-69 triumph.

UNC 63, Georgetown 62 – NCAA Championship Game
March 29, 1982

Michael Jordan hit a jumper from the left wing with 17 seconds to play to give Dean Smith his first national championship. Final Four MVP James Worthy had 28 points, but it was the freshman Jordan who took a pass from Jimmy Black and made the game-winning shot. Worthy stole an errant pass from Hoya forward Fred Brown in the final seconds to clinch the title.

UNC 70, Tulane 68 (3 OT)
November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Michael Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Tar Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan stole the inbounds pass and hit a 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina prevailed, 70-68, in triple overtime.

UNC 64, Virginia 63
February 10, 1983

Carolina trailed second-ranked Virginia by 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with 4:12 remaining. Jimmy Braddock hit a three-pointer and Matt Doherty and Sam Perkins each converted one-and-ones to close the gap to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Virginia held the ball and Perkins was forced to foul Ralph Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Michael Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled up-court, Jordan stole the ball and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a last-second shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound in front of a delirious Carmichael crowd.

March 3, 1984

On Senior Day for Sam Perkins and Matt Doherty and what proved to be Michael Jordan's final game in Carmichael Auditorium, Doherty drove the length of the floor and hit a 14-foot jumper to send the game to overtime. Perkins and Jordan scored 11 of their combined 60 points in the second overtime as Carolina pulled away to finish 14-0 in the ACC in the regular season.

Mark Alarie converted a three-point play that gave the Blue Devils a 73-71 lead with 20 seconds remaining in regulation. After Steve Hale missed an 18-footer, UNC fouled Danny Meagher with nine seconds to play, but Meagher missed, and Doherty grabbed the rebound and hit the tying shot as the second half expired.

UNC 75, Maryland 74
January 9, 1985

UNC 60, Notre Dame 58 – NCAA Second Round
March 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels had to play at Notre Dame. Tied at 58 with 1:38 left, the Irish held for the last shot. Irish point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home, then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.

UNC 84, Virginia 82 (2 OT) – ACC Tournament Semifinal
March 7, 1987

Scott Williams made a jump hook at the buzzer at the end of the first overtime and Kenny Smith scored the game-winner in the lane with two seconds to play in the second OT.

Virginia led, 78-76, and had the ball with seven seconds to play in the first extra period, but Smith stole a long pass and called timeout. Jeff Lebo got the inbounds pass and drove up court, but was stripped of the ball, which went to Williams, who hit a turnaround shot from outside the lane as time expired. Williams had missed a short jumper with one second remaining in regulation that could have won the game.

UNC 96, Syracuse 93 (OT) – Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic
November 21, 1987

Undermanned Carolina faced top-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic, and the Orange led by 14 with 15:39 to play. Carolina stormed back and sent the game into overtime when freshman Pete Chilcutt hit a turnaround jumper at the horn to tie the game at 85.

UNC 80, James Madison 79 – Maui Classic
November 24, 1989

The Tar Heels trailed Driesell's Dukes, 79-70, with less than a minute to play in the Maui Classic. An offensive rebound basket by Rick Fox and a steal and three-pointer by Hubert Davis cut the deficit to four with 48 seconds to play. Pete Chilcutt hit a three to pull within one with 10 ticks remaining. The Tar Heels had one last chance after a JMU player stepped out of bounds and King Rice tossed an off-balance runner from the top of the key that banked in at the buzzer.

UNC 79, Oklahoma 77 – NCAA Second Round
March 17, 1990

The Tar Heels trailed No. 1 ranked Oklahoma, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away. The Sooners answered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, but King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot but missed the second. The rebound went out-of-bounds to Carolina with eight seconds to play. Fox hit a driving bank shot off the glass as time expired that gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive trip to the Sweet 16.

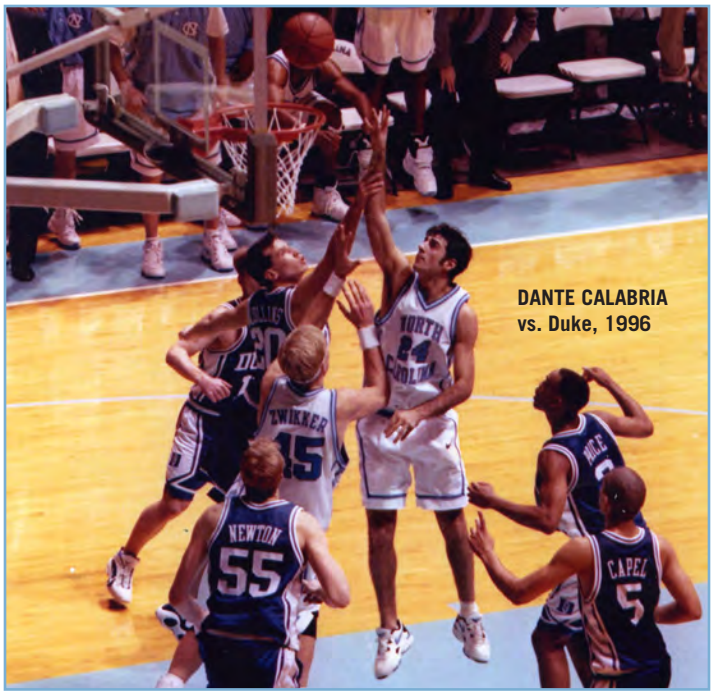
February 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off No. 1 Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer. The comeback was the largest in Tar Heel history. UNC trailed by 20 with 14:49 to play and by 11 with 6:17 to go before a 10-0 run cut the Deacs lead to 75-74. Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws with 38 seconds left. Reese made a steal with 16 seconds to play, drove the lane and missed, but grabbed his own rebound and launched a 12-footer at the buzzer for the win.



DANTE CALABRIA

UNC 82, Florida State 77
January 27, 1993

The Seminoles jumped out to a 45-28 advantage at the half and later extended the lead to as many as 21 points. Carolina trailed 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. The Tar Heels, keyed by a pair of three-pointers by Henrik Rodl, then ran off 15 straight points and Eric Montross hit a jump hook with 1:59 left to cut the FSU lead to 77-76. George Lynch stole a crosscourt pass by Charlie Ward and slammed the ball home to give Carolina a 78-77 lead. Clutch foul shooting by Donald Williams sealed the 82-77 victory. The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

1993 NCAA Tournament

The Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 UC lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Carolina took a 42-36 halftime lead and went on to win the title, 77-71. Williams finished with 25 points and hit four free throws in the final minutes to secure the win.

UNC 86, Wake Forest 84 (OT) – ACC Tournament Semifinal
March 12, 1994

The Tar Heels erased a five-point deficit in the final 1:15 of regulation to down the Demon Deacons, 86-84, in overtime in the ACC semifinals. Leading 81-78, Wake Forest chose to foul Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second but grabbed the rebound. He found Dante Calabria, whose baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left tied the score at 81. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse took a pass from Phelps and hit a driving shot to win the game, 86-84. Carolina went on to win its 13th ACC title the next day with a 73-66 victory over Virginia.

January 28, 1995

Winston-Salem was the stage for a clash of sophomore centers Rasheed Wallace and Tim Duncan. Duncan had 18 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks, and Wallace countered with 17 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks. Carolina trailed Wake Forest 53-43 with 6:39 left. Strong inside play from Wallace and the three-point shooting of Jeff McInnis and Donald Williams brought UNC to within one at 61-60. Williams then hit a running one-hander from the right side of the lane with 5.5 seconds remaining for a 62-61 win.

UNC 102, Duke 100 (2 OT)
February 2, 1995

The Tar Heels jumped out to a 26-9 lead on a spectacular reverse dunk by Jerry Stackhouse over two Blue Devils. Duke pulled within five at halftime and led by as many as 12 in the second half. UNC battled back from a nine-point deficit with 6:18 remaining to force overtime. The Tar Heels led by nine, but Duke made three three-pointers, including a 30-footer from Jeff Capel at the buzzer, to knot the score at 95 and force a second overtime. Donald Williams hit a pair of 12-footers in the second OT and Jeff McInnis had a steal and lay-up with under a minute to play to give Carolina a 102-100 win. Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace each had 25 points and Williams added 24 in one of the greatest college basketball games ever played.

UNC 88, Maryland 86 (OT)
January 6, 1996

Carolina ended Maryland's 21-game winning streak at Cole Field House as freshman Antawn Jamison capped a 31-point performance by scoring the winning basket as overtime expired. Tied at 86, Jeff McInnis attempted a 15-foot jump shot with five seconds remaining. It missed and the rebound fell to Calabria, who grabbed the ball out a pile of players in the lane. While laying on the floor, Calabria tossed the ball over his shoulder toward the backboard where Jamison, who made his last 13 field goal attempts, grabbed it and released the close-range shot with a tenth of a second to play.

January 31, 1996

The Blue Devils' lead was three when Ademola Okulaja grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to make it 69-68 with 1:55 to go. Steve Wojciechowski hit a three-pointer for a 72-68 Duke lead with 1:13 to play, but Shammond Williams countered with a three of his own 15 seconds later. Duke turned the ball over and the Tar Heels nearly returned the favor, but Williams forced a jump ball after a scramble. Possession favored UNC and Jeff McInnis drove into the lane and fed Serge Zwikker, whose shot was blocked by Greg Newton. Dante Calabria tipped the loose ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Ricky Price's baseline jumper at the buzzer hit the front of the rim.

UNC 59, NC State 56
January 15, 1997

The Tar Heels began ACC play with three straight losses for the first time in history. Carolina led 36-28 at halftime but did not score a field goal in the second half until the 8:09 mark and had just two baskets in the first 18 minutes of the second stanza. The Wolfpack led 56-47 with 2:00 to play, but the Tar Heels went on a 12-0 run to finish the game. Antawn Jamison began the rally by forcing a steal and Shammond Williams hit a lay-up to pull within seven. Williams hit a three-pointer and Jamison added a lay-up to pull within two points with 50 seconds to play. Trailing by one with 28 seconds left, Carolina fouled, and State missed the front end of a one-and-one. The Tar Heels went ahead for good with 12 seconds to play as Ademola Okulaja fed Jamison on the low block for a lay-up. Vince Carter stole the inbounds pass after the go-ahead score to secure the win.

DEAN SMITH
Head Coach 1961-97

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came as no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight and surpassed again in 2011 by Mike Krzyzewski.

• Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

• Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run is the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

• Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith.

• His teams played in 11 Final Fours, second in number only to Wooden, who reached 12.

• Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

• In his last 31 seasons, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

• Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continue to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Honorary Coach of the Year by the United States Olympic Committee, received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the annual ESPY Awards, and was honored with special awards for contributions to basketball by the Atlanta Tipoff Club and New York Athletic Club. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

In 2013, Smith's wife, Linnea, accepted the Presidential Medal of Freedom from President Barack Obama on the coach's behalf. The medal is the nation's highest civilian honor, presented to those who have "made especially meritorious contributions to the security or national interests of the United States, to world peace, or to cultural or other significant public or private endeavors."

Smith was one of 16 Medal of Freedom recipients in 2013, along with President Bill Clinton, Chicago Cub Hall of Famer Ernie Banks, Washington Post editor Ben Bradlee, Senators Daniel Inouye and Richard Lugar, entertainers Loretta Lynn and Oprah Winfrey and astronaut Sally Ride.

Smith is recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say.

UCLA coach John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Indiana coach Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski: "It's singularly such a tremendous accomplishment. Whatever is written about him in a positive sense he justly deserves. I know he'll give credit, as we all would, to the players who have played for him, but in this situation the praise for him should rise well above that for the players who played for him."

Carolina and Kansas head coach and Smith assistant Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Wake Forest coach Dave Odom: "What boggles the mind about him, at least to me, are the numbers of nights he's gone into the arena and been ready to compete on every single possession. I've not done it anywhere close to half as often and there are nights when it seems the season will never end. And yet, he's there, ready to go, always figuring out a way to beat you. Whenever I think about it, I shake my head in wonder."

Virginia coach Terry Holland: "He has been a target for all of us who coached in the ACC to shoot for. It is not always the most pleasant position to be in. The Carolina program was the measuring stick to everybody who came into the league. He has been willing to be the measuring stick. He helped create national exposure not only for North Carolina, but also for the other ACC teams as well and made us all improve our programs."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the Gold Medal against a group of improving international teams.

He named his long-time assistant, Bill Guthridge, and Georgetown's John Thompson, to be his assistants on the Olympic Team staff. Smith's teaching skills were put to one of their toughest tests.

Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history

In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

More than 96 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

The Miami Heat's Pat Riley, who coached former Tar Heel standout James Worthy to three world titles with the Los Angeles Lakers, is another believer in Smith's program.

"We always look for players from North Carolina," said Riley. "If we could draft players every year from North Carolina, we'd do it. You know they know how to play. The players are so full of character like James and Michael Jordan. I have a lot of respect for Coach Smith. I'm the beneficiary of a man who has taught all these guys how to play the game. When they come to the pros, they're refined. They're ready to step right in."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams have won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Knight.

Smith's coaching skills and dedication to playing with class are the reasons he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack. But, he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a pressure, man-to-man to speed up the action.

The fast-breaking attack, great teamwork in a set offense and steals produced by the defense resulted in a number of easy baskets. Along with good shot selection, those things have helped Carolina annually rank among the best shooting teams in the nation. Carolina failed to hit at least 50 percent from the field just four time in his last 27 years. Even in those four seasons, Carolina topped the ACC in field goal shooting each year.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

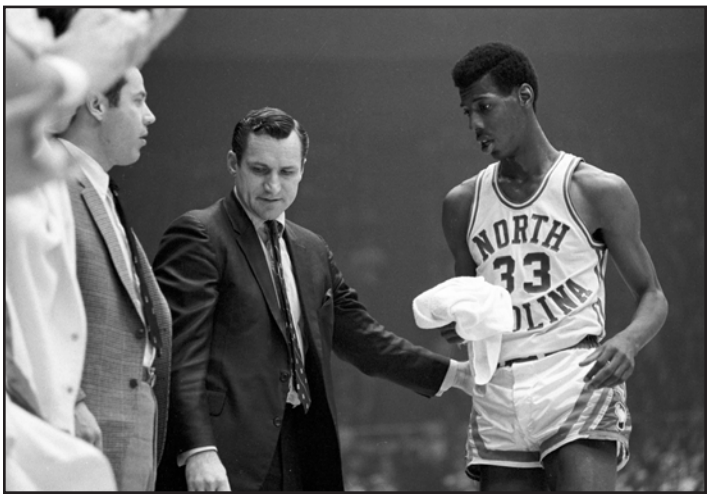
Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents do not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches, as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who have gone on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

Six of Smith's players won rookie of the year awards in either the NBA or ABA, including Charlie Scott, Robert McAdoo, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and Vince Carter.

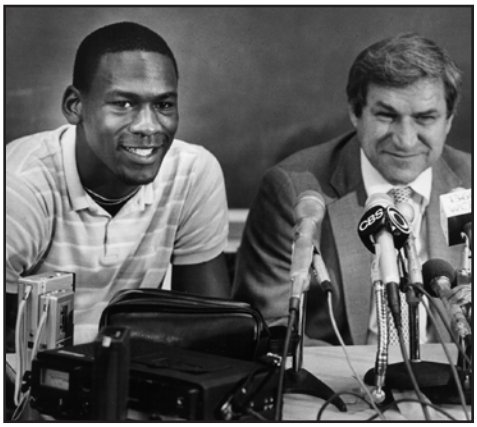


"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

NBA head coach and former UNC guard George Karl: "I don't think any of the lettermen can really express the family atmosphere that he's built, the tradition that he's built of loyalty and camaraderie. It's a fraternity that's very much admired by basketball people in the world."

Tar Heel guard and Hall of Famer Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game.



"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford, played for and coached with Smith: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

Hall of Famer Larry Brown played for Smith and served as an assistant under Smith: "Nobody's done it better over a longer period of time than he has. He won in the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s and if you look at his teams, they've always been innovative, he hasn't been lost or left behind. He's always stayed ahead. He's kept young. He's learned to deal with all kinds of athletes and the changes we've all faced."

Smith retired as the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories (currently third). In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716, and was the first to win 13 titles.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, and Knight are the only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven previous occasions as well—1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

ROY WILLIAMS
Head Coach 2003-21

Roy Williams retired on April 1, 2021, with the third-most wins by a Division I head coach and the sixth-highest winning percentage in college basketball history.

Inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007, Williams was a college head coach for 33 seasons at two of the three winningest programs in the sport's history. He won 418 games in 15 seasons at Kansas from 1988-2003 and 485 games in 18 seasons at UNC, his alma mater, from 2003-21. He is the second-winningest coach all-time at Carolina and is third at KU. He is the only coach in college basketball history to win 400 games at two schools.

Williams is one of 12 Tar Heels enshrined in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, joining a group that includes Dean Smith, Michael Jordan, James Worthy, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, Bob McAdoo, Charlie Scott, Bobby Jones and George Karl.

Williams is a member of the NABC College Basketball Hall of Fame, North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame and the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame. He is a recipient of the John R. Wooden Legends of Coaching Award (Los Angeles Athletic Club), the Naismith Award for Contributions to the Game, the NABC Foundation Court of Honor, the UNC General Alumni Administration's Distinguished Service Medal and the UNC Board of Trustees' William R. Davie Award, for which he was co-honored with his wife, Wanda.

The homecourt of the Tar Heels, was officially re-named the Roy Williams Court at the Dean E. Smith Center in 2018.

ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News and Fox Sports named Williams the Coach of the Decade for 2000-09, a 10-year span during which he won 33 NCAA Tournament games, including two national titles among five Final Four appearances, at KU and Carolina.

The Asheville, N.C., native won his 900th game when the Tar Heels beat Florida State on February 27, 2021, reaching 900 wins in fewer games and fewer seasons than any other coach in history. His 903rd and final win came against Virginia Tech in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament on March 11, 2021. He finished his career with a 903-264 record. The 903 wins rank third in wins by a Division I coach behind only Mike Krzyzewski and Jim Boeheim and his winning percentage of .774 is sixth all-time, the highest in his 33 seasons among Power 5 conference coaches.

Williams grew up in the Biltmore neighborhood in Asheville. He attended Roberson High, where he played for Coach Buddy Baldwin. He played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69, earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and a master's degree in teaching in 1973. After five seasons as the head coach at Owen High School in Black Mountain, N.C., Williams joined Smith's UNC staff, where he served as an assistant coach from 1978-88.

Williams led UNC to NCAA championships as a head coach in 2005, 2009 and 2017 and was an assistant when the Tar Heels won the title in 1982. He is the only head coach to win three national championships at his alma mater and one of six – with John Wooden, Krzyzewski, Adolph Rupp, Bob Knight and Jim Calhoun – to win at least three titles.

In 2018, the University of North Carolina officially named the playing floor at the Dean E. Smith Center, home of the Tar Heels, Roy Williams Court.

Williams is second all-time in college basketball in 30-win seasons (12) and fourth in 20-win seasons (29), has the most wins over No. 1-ranked teams in the AP poll (8) and averaged more wins per season (27.4) than any coach with 800 or more wins. His teams won 18 regular-season conference championships, tied for the fifth most all-time.

He won national coach-of-the-year honors nine times (1990, 1991, 1992, 1997, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2017, 2019) and was the conference coach of the year nine times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2011). His teams were ranked in 84.4 percent of the AP polls, including 61.5 percent of the polls in the top 10 and 29 weeks at No. 1. In 13 seasons his teams earned a No. 1 ranking and in 18 seasons were ranked at least second in the nation.

Williams won 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800 and 900 games in fewer seasons than any coach in college basketball history.

Williams ranks with Smith and Krzyzewski as the most accomplished coaches in ACC history, ranking third in wins (485), third in ACC regular-season and Tournament wins (241), third in regular-season ACC titles (9), third in road wins (93), fourth in road winning percentage in league play (.621) and fifth in regular-season winning percentage (.693).

His teams defined success in NCAA Tournament play, where he is second in wins (79), games (106) and No. 1 seeds (13); third in appearances (30), winning percentage (.745), Final Four wins (9) and championship game appearances (6); and fourth in titles (3) and Final Fours (9). Over his last 20 years, Williams' teams won 54 NCAA Tournament games, more than any other coach in the nation. Carolina's 45 NCAA Tournament wins in the Williams era were more than any other school in those 18 seasons. Carolina was a No. 1 seed in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and a No. 2 in 2018, the best four-year stretch of seeding in school history.

Only Kentucky, UNC, Duke, UCLA and Kansas have more NCAA Tournament wins than Williams. His teams went 29-1 in the first round, 19-10 in the second, 13-6 in the Sweet 16, 9-4 in the Elite 8, 6-3 in the national semifinals and 3-3 in the championship game.

Carolina went 45-13 in the NCAA Tournament under Williams, a winning percentage of .776 that is the highest in ACC history. The 45 wins under Williams are more than 13 current or former ACC schools have won in their NCAA Tournament histories. He is the only coach to win an NCAA Tournament game in 20 consecutive seasons (1990-2009) and the only coach to win 29 straight first-round games.

In 2005, Carolina went 33-4 and won the NCAA title in Williams' second year as head coach, just two years removed from back-to-back seasons when the Tar Heels failed to make the NCAA Tournament field.

The 2009 squad is considered one of the most dominant championship teams, becoming the first NCAA champion to win all six games by a dozen or more points. Carolina won by an average of 20.2 points, the highest margin in 13 years, trailed in the second half just once and led Michigan State by a record 21 points at halftime in the national championship game.

Williams led the Tar Heels to back-to-back national championship games in 2016 and 2017. UNC lost the title to Villanova on a last-second three-pointer in '16, but beat top-seed Gonzaga, 71-65, to win the 2017 title. It marked the fourth time in NCAA history a school won the championship a year after losing in the finals.

Under Williams, Carolina earned 10 No. 1 or No. 2 seeds, won three ACC Tournament championships and averaged 26.9 wins and 11.8 regular-season ACC wins per season. Carolina had 11 top-10 finishes in the Associated Press poll, and produced 21 All-Americas, 17 first-team All-ACC selections, 23 first-round NBA Draft picks, six ACC scholar-athletes of the year and seven Academic All-Americas. Five times multiple Tar Heels were selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, including four players in 2005 and 2012 and three in 2009 and 2019.

Williams set UNC records for most wins in one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (70 in 2008-09), three years (101 from 2007-09), four years (124 from 2006-09), five years (157 from 2005-09), six years (177 from 2005-10), seven years (206 from 2005-12), eight years (228, 2011-18 and 2012-19), nine years (263 from 2005-13), 10 years (292 from 2008-17) and 15 years (434 from 2004-19).

His teams dominated at home, posting a record of 444-57 (.886). He led the Jayhawks to a 201-17 record (.922) in Allen Fieldhouse, at one point winning 62 consecutive games. The Tar Heels went 243-41 at home under Williams (including 241-40 at the Smith Center) and set the UNC record for consecutive home wins with 31.

In 10 seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks averaged 27.9 wins, including 35 in 1997-98. He also won 30 in 1989-90, 34 in 1996-97, 33 in 2001-02 and 30 in 2002-03. The Jayhawks reached the Sweet 16 nine times and the Final Eight on five occasions. In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first Big 12 team to go 16-0 in league play. From 1995-98, Kansas was a combined 123-17 – an average of 30.8 wins per season.

- four National Players of the Year – Drew Gooden (2002), Nick Collison (2003), Sean May (2005) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008);
- 17 first-team All-Americas, including 10 consensus first-team All-America honors – KU's Raef LaFrentz (1997 and 1998), Paul Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002) and Collison (2003); UNC's Hansbrough (2007, 2008, 2009), Brice Johnson (2016) and Justin Jackson (2017);

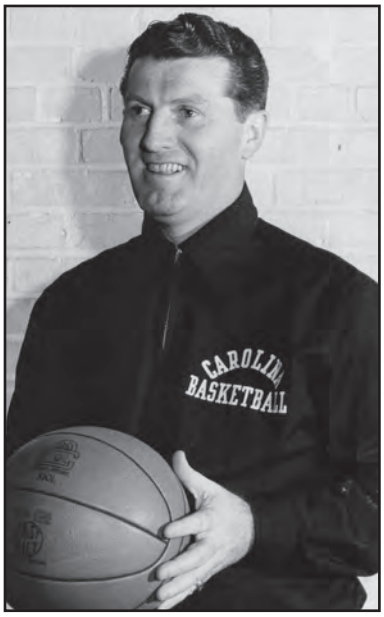
FRANK MCGUIRE: Head Coach 1952-61
BILL GUTHRIDGE: Head Coach 1997-2000



Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times. The Tar Heels finished first or tied for first in the ACC regular season 16 times, finished second or tied for second in the ACC regular season 11 times, and finished third or tied for third in the ACC regular season six times.

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins on the staff at Kansas State. He was on the sidelines for a record 73 NCAA Tournament victories, including 71 at Carolina and two at Kansas State.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four. He joined Ohio State's Fred Taylor as just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1997-98 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Atlanta Tipoff Club (Naismith Award), CBS/Chevrolet, the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club and The Sporting News. That year, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He directed UNC to the 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championship and was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

He coached 1997-98 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1998-99 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter, both of whom entered the NBA Draft after their junior seasons. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year, five ACC Rookies of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach along with Hall of Famer John Thompson under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

He was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 2013. In 2021, he was inducted posthumously in the STEP UP Assistant Coaches Hall of Fame.

1957 NCAA CHAMPIONS

North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo.

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national title was Chamberlain.

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA championship.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and the NCAA tournament berth. Four of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

1982 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers "The Shot." It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael Jordan.

Jordan stood 16 feet to the left of the basket. Catch-jump-shoot. No hesitation. The ball found the bottom of the net. Carolina 63, Georgetown 62. Fifteen seconds remained on the clock.

Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate. He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory. It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. Throughout the game, Worthy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal victory over Houston. Sam Perkins had 25 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro. Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels using a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.

Top-ranked and top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes, 52-50, in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

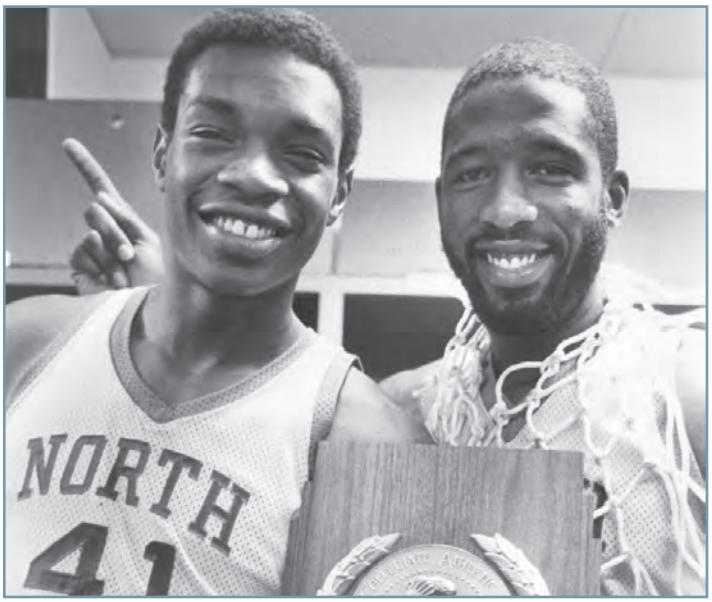
DEAN SMITH:

"We had three starters back from the year before, plus Matt Doherty, who I counted as a co-starter in 1981. Two of our best games all year were in New Orleans against Houston and Georgetown. Jordan had his best game as a freshman in the final, but Worthy was the obvious MVP. His play gets overshadowed because of Michael's shot. And Perkins was a true hero for his play against Olajuwon in the semifinals. He was sensational.

"The play was No. 1 to post up Worthy, then have Perkins come in behind him. Or you could go crosscourt to the wing for Michael and he was wide open from 17-18 feet. It looked good, I was right in line with him. Then we we put on our scramble defense. Worthy was out of position, but Jordan stopped the pass that made Fred Brown throw it away."

MICHAEL JORDAN'S shot with 17 seconds to play lifted UNC past Georgetown. SAM PERKINS and Final 4 MVP JAMES WORTHY celebrate with the trophy (below). Worthy scored 28 in the championship game.



1993 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal— Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the "Fab Five," had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn't have been any further apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team — talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fastbreak layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first, but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost, 79-78, courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas set up a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half and the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson's driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese's dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

DEAN SMITH:

"We had a such great leader in George Lynch and our team had a lot of confidence. We were very poised. I know I had a lot of confidence in Derrick Phelps and Lynch. The last four games all were close games. Arkansas went down to the wire, Cincinnati we should have won in regulation, but won in overtime. Michigan was a great game with Donald Williams hitting key shots. So many of those games could have gone either way."

Final 4 MVP DONALD WILLIAMS scored 25 points in the semifinal vs. Kansas and 25 in the championship game vs. Michigan.

It began with an upset loss to Santa Clara and ended by beating No. 1 ranked Illinois in St. Louis. Along the way, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and defied the experts who said they were too selfish to win a national title.

Instead, led by seniors Jawad Williams, Jackie Manuel and Melvin Scott, and under the tutelage of second-year head coach Roy Williams, the Tar Heels became the best team in the nation. Carolina led the country in scoring and assists and held the opposition to 40 percent shooting.

Center Sean May arguably became the finest player in the country, racking up eight straight double-doubles and averaging 17.5 points and 10.7 rebounds.

Point guard Raymond Felton joined May on the All-ACC first team and won the Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the country. He led the ACC in assists and hit 44 percent from three-point range.

Carolina lost at Wake Forest and Duke, but clinched its first outright conference title since 1993 with a 75-73 win over the Blue Devils in the regular-season finale. May had 26 points and 24 rebounds and Marvin Williams capped a rally from nine points behind with a three-point play with 17 seconds remaining.

UNC survived a first round scare in the ACC Tournament from Clemson in large part thanks to Felton's career-high 29 points. But Georgia Tech bounced the Tar Heels from in the semifinals behind Will Bynum's 35 points.

Carolina earned a No. 1 seed and opened NCAA play against Oakland in front of a raucous crowd in Charlotte. UNC took out any lingering frustrations from the ACC Tournament in the first half, shooting 73 percent from the floor en route to a 59-33 advantage. Marvin Williams and Sean May combined for 39 points and 16 rebounds and Carolina opened its title run with a 96-68 win.

Iowa State was next in round two. Leading 36-33, UNC closed the first half with nine unanswered points. Iowa State never came within single digits in the second half. May had 24 points and 17 rebounds and Marvin Williams added 20 points and 15 boards.

Fifth-seeded Villanova gave Carolina a stern test in Syracuse in the Sweet 16. The Wildcats went to a four-guard offense and built a 21-9 lead midway through the first half behind Randy Foye's hot shooting. May scored 12 of UNC's 29 points as the Tar Heels clawed to within four at the break. UNC took the lead for good on a McCants three with 7:20 to play and extended its lead to 10 points with 3:45 remaining.

But Felton fouled out with 2:13 to play and the Wildcats pulled to within 64-62 with 40 seconds left. Scott, who took over the point, canned two free throws for a four-point lead. Villanova made one free throw and had a chance to tie, but Allen Ray was whistled for a travel with nine seconds to play.

May dominated the regional final against Wisconsin with 29 points and 12 rebounds. The game was tied at 44 at halftime, but UNC went on a 14-0 run early in the second half. McCants had a key block and three-pointer in the final three minutes to secure the win.

Michigan State led UNC by five at halftime in the national semifinals, but UNC outscored the Spartans, 54-33, in the second half to post an 87-71 win. May scored 22 and Jawad Williams had 20. The Tar Heels held Michigan State to 34 percent shooting.

No. 2-ranked Carolina squared off against top-ranked Illinois in the championship. The Illini had been ranked No. 1 since Dec. 6th. But the Tar Heels built a 40-27 halftime lead behind 14 points from McCants and eight points and six assists from Felton.

The Illini made 5 of 19 threes in the first half, but got hot and tied the game at 65-65 with 5:34 to play. Felton knocked home a long three moments later, but the game was tied again at 70 with 2:40 to play.

The Tar Heels took the lead for good with 1:27 to play as Marvin Williams tipped in a missed shot. Illinois missed a pair of three-pointers; then Felton stole a pass. Felton hit three free throws in the final seconds to give Carolina a 75-70 win and Roy Williams his first NCAA title. May, the Final Four MVP, had 26 points and 10 rebounds.

ROY WILLIAMS:

"I had watched One Shining Moment for so many years, and I had always wanted to watch it from the arena, from the floor, when it was about my team. It was a moment where I reached up to wipe a tear away because as a coach, that is the moment. That's what you dream about."

Carolina won all six games in the 2009 NCAA Tournament by 12 or more points, including a 17-point margin in the national championship win over Michigan State.

The Tar Heels began 2008-09 with lofty expectations as five starters returned from a team that won a school-record 36 games and a trip to the Final Four the previous year. Carolina was an unprecedented unanimous No. 1 pick in both the media and coaches' polls.

Injuries took an early toll on the championship hopes, however, as 2008 National Player of the Year Tyler Hansbrough, senior Marcus Ginyard and freshman Tyler Zeller all saw time on the injured list early in the season. Hansbrough would miss four games with a stress reaction in his leg and ankle sprain, Ginyard would play in only three games all year because of a stress fracture in his foot, and Zeller suffered a broken wrist in the second game that sidelined him for 23 contests.

The Tar Heels retained their top ranking through early January by winning their first 13 games, routing Kentucky and Michigan State and winning the Maui Invitational along the way. On December 18th, Hansbrough set the UNC scoring record, surpassing Phil Ford's mark against Evansville.

Carolina lost its first two games in ACC play to Boston College and Wake Forest.

The Tar Heels then won 13 of their next 14 games to capture the ACC regular-season crown with a 13-3 record. Ty Lawson knocked off Florida State with a buzzer-beating three-pointer, scored 21 second-half points in a 101-87 win at Duke, hit numerous clutch three-pointers in a close win at Miami and earned ACC Player of the Year honors. Lawson also earned first-team All-America accolades and won the Cousy Award as the top point guard in the country. He became the first point guard to be ACC Player of the Year in 31 years.

Lawson severely injured a toe two days before UNC's Senior Day win over Duke. He played in that game but was unable to play in the ACC Tournament as Florida State knocked the Tar Heels out in the semifinals.

Carolina was a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament South Regional. Wayne Ellington began his stellar NCAA Tournament with 25 points and Carolina held Radford under 28 percent shooting from the floor as the Tar Heels overwhelmed the Highlanders 101-58 in the opening round. In the first half, Hansbrough set the ACC career scoring record, breaking the mark held by Duke's J.J. Redick.

LSU in the second round proved to be the most challenging test en route to the title. Carolina led by nine at the half, but the Tigers surged ahead by five points early in the second period. Lawson, who did not play against Radford and was a gametime decision to play against LSU, was spectacular. He scored 21 second-half points, leading Carolina to an 84-70 win. Lawson and Ellington scored 23 points apiece and Danny Green hit a key three-pointer to help UNC advance.

The Tar Heels dominated both games in the regional in Memphis, beating Gonzaga in the Sweet 16 98-77 behind Hansbrough's 24 points and 10 rebounds. In the regional final, UNC never trailed, toppling Player of the Year Blake Griffin and Oklahoma 72-60. Lawson earned regional MVP honors as Carolina shot 61.9 percent from the field in the second half against the Sooners.

The Tar Heels beat Villanova in the national semifinals, in which UNC was appearing for the third time in five years. Lawson had 22 points and eight assists and Hansbrough added his 47th career double-double with 18 points and 11 rebounds. The Tar Heels led 49-40 at the half, but the Wildcats closed to within five early in the second. That would prove to be the closest any opponent got to UNC in the second half of the last four NCAA Tournament games. Green hit a three, Lawson scored on a fast break layup and the lead shot back to double figures. That win setup a rematch with Michigan State, whom the Tar Heels beat 98-63 in December.

The championship game was all Carolina. Played in front of nearly 73,000 fans, most of whom wore Michigan State green, the Tar Heels scored 55 first-half points and led by 21 at the break, both NCAA records. Ellington scored 17 points in the opening stanza and earned Most Outstanding Player honors. Hansbrough added 18 points and Lawson dominated on both ends of the floor with 21 points, six assists and a championship game record eight steals. The game was never closer than 13 points in the second half as Carolina won, 89-72.

ROY WILLIAMS:

"My hats are off to the guys in our locker room, because they took me on one fantastic ride, and it's something I'll never forget."

JOEL BERRY II scored a game-high 22 points as Carolina beat Gonzaga in Phoenix for the 2017 NCAA title.

Three starters – point guard Joel Berry II and forwards Justin Jackson and Kennedy Meeks – returned from the 2016 team that came within seconds of winning a national championship.

The Tar Heels began the year ranked sixth in the nation and opened with seven straight wins, including a win over Wisconsin to win the Maui Jim Invitational.

Non-conference losses to Indiana and Kentucky (103-100 in Las Vegas in which Jackson scored a career-high 34 points) and a stunning ACC opening defeat at Georgia Tech dropped UNC out of the Top 10 heading into the new year.

Carolina went 8-1 in ACC play in January, highlighted by an overtime win at Clemson, a 107-56 trouncing of NC State and a 96-83 win over ninth-ranked Florida State.

The Tar Heels had four wins over Top-20 teams in their final eight regular-season games, including a 90-83 win over Duke in the regular-season finale when Berry went 5 for 5 from three-point range and scored 28 points. UNC went 14-4 in league play to win the ACC regular-season for the eighth time in the last 13 years.

UNC earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA South Regional and beat Texas Southern by 39 points in the first round. In the second round, UNC trailed Arkansas, 65-60, but out-scored the Razorbacks 12-0 over the final three minutes to win by seven. It was the largest come-from-behind win that late in a game by UNC in its NCAA Tournament history.

Berry and Jackson combined for 50 points and Luke Maye had 16 points and 12 rebounds in a 92-80 win over Butler in the Sweet 16 to set up a 1 vs. 2 seed matchup against Kentucky for the right to advance to the Final Four.

Jackson led all scorers in the regional final with 19 points, and Meeks grabbed a career-high 17 rebounds, but it was Maye, a sophomore who averaged about 13 minutes a game off the bench, who hit the winning shot and earned South Regional MVP honors.

Carolina led by five at the half, but the Cats pulled ahead by five with less than five minutes to play. The Tar Heels surged ahead by seven, but Kentucky's Malik Monk tied the game with just over seven seconds to play on a three-pointer.

Meeks quickly in-bounded the ball to Theo Pinson, who raced upcourt and pitched the ball to Maye, who sank a 19-footer with 0.3 seconds to play for a 75-73 victory. Maye finished with a career-high 17 points.

Carolina became the first team to play in 20 Final Fours. In the semifinals, the Tar Heels held on for a 77-76 win over Oregon behind 25 points and 14 rebounds by Meeks and 22 points by Jackson. UNC led the entire second half, but needed a pair of offensive rebounds by Pinson and Meeks in the last five seconds after missed free throws to secure the win.

In the championship game, UNC played second-ranked Gonzaga, which came into the contest 37-1 on the season.

Berry had a game-high 22 points and six assists, Isaiah Hicks hit a key basket with 26 seconds to play and Meeks had an offensive rebound, block and steal in the final minute to lead UNC to the title. Carolina finished the season number one in the nation in rebounding, offensive rebounding and rebound margin, so it was appropriate that Hicks' basket came after an offensive rebound by Meeks. That basket gave UNC 20 second-chance points in the title game; the Tar Heels were 17-0 for the season when scoring 20 or more second-chance points.

The Tar Heels held their six opponents in the NCAA Tournament to 39.6 percent shooting from the floor.

Jackson earned consensus first-team All-America honors and was the ACC Player of the Year. He led the team in scoring at 18.3 points per game and set a single-season UNC record with 105 three-point field goals. Berry became the first player to score 20 or more points in consecutive national championship games (he had 20 against Villanova in 2016) since Hall of Famer Bill Walton for UCLA in 1972-73,

Jackson and freshman Tony Bradley were selected in the first round of the 2017 NBA Draft; Jackson was the 15th pick and Bradley the 28th.

Head coach Roy Williams became the first to win three national championships at his alma mater and joined John Wooden, Mike Krzyzewski, Bob Knight, Adolph Rupp and Jim Calhoun with three national titles.

ROY WILLIAMS:

"One of the neatest things was how our players reacted after we had pretty much clinched the championship game victory over Gonzaga. It was a stunning moment. They had invested so much sweat, attention to detail, and love for each other that you could see the enormity of winning the championship just one year after losing in the last second, and it was overwhelming to them."

(non-national championship season summaries listed below)

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record, but was beaten by Wake Forest in the SoCon Tournament semifinals. Duke won the postseason title, but the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal, but 27-year-old Bones McKinney scored 11 points to lead Carolina to a 57-49 win. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

John "Hook" Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia and Carolina's leading scorer with 12.9 points per game, and Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game, despite Dillon's 16 points. Seven-foot center Bob Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies.

Junior forward Larry Miller, the ACC Player of the Year, and five heralded sophomores led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record, an ACC title and first Final Four under head coach Dean Smith.

Carolina reached the Final Four with a 96-80 victory over Boston College in the Eastern Regional final. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned regional MVP honors after scoring 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and center Rusty Clark posted a double-double with 18 points and 18 rebounds.

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky. Flyer forward Don May scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

"The big thing is we had to win the ACC Tournament before we could even go to the NCAA Tournament," says Coach Smith. "I was concerned about how we would do in the NCAAs in overcoming the excitement of winning the ACC Tournament. We did go to the Final Four with three sophomore starters that year. That was a thrilling time."

Carolina beat Ohio State, 80-66, to advance to the national championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the MVP at the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.

Carolina played defending champion UCLA for the championship in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 78-55 win, their fourth title in five years. Miller led the Tar Heels with 14 points and six rebounds.

"We were ready this time for the NCAAs, based on the year before," says Coach Smith. "We were great against undefeated St. Bonaventure with Bob Lanier in the opening round. The field was not seeded in those days. We faced Lew Alcindor and UCLA in the championship game. I do think that was the best college team I had ever seen to that date."

1969

First-team All-America Charles Scott led Carolina with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils, 85-74.

Scott had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson in the regional final. He hit the game-winner as time expired to give the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Lefty Driesell's Wildcats to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount scored 36 and Bill Keller added 20 to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory in the national semifinals.

1972

The Tar Heels earned an NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over Maryland in the ACC Championship, avenging an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Dennis Wuycik added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuycik (18), Robert McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) led UNC to a 73-59 win over Penn in the regional final.

Carolina lost to Florida State, 79-75, in the Final Four. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but his teammates made 19 of 51 shots from the floor, and the Tar Heels could not overcome a 13-point halftime deficit. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

"This was one of our great teams," says Coach Smith. "We played extremely well to get to the Final Four, paying back South Carolina for beating us in the ACC Tournament the year before. We beat a very good Penn team. We were ranked No. 2 in the nation and UCLA was No.1. I think we looked past Florida State ahead to UCLA. McAdoo fouled out with 13 minutes to play."

Injuries dominated the storylines in the incredible run to the championship game.

In the second round, Phil Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels, playing without an injured Walter Davis, to a 69-66 win over Purdue. On St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed Notre Dame by 14 in the second half, but John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 win.

Davis, despite a broken finger, scored 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final.

The Tar Heels trailed UNLV, 49-43, at the half, in the national semifinals, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind freshman Mike O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds. Davis made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

"Coach Guthridge called that our most amazing year," says Coach Smith. "We had more huggers that year – that means when the game is over we are all hugging in the dressing room. We lost our All-America center Tom LaGarde in February; then we had a great run. Walter couldn't shoot against Notre Dame, but Phil happened to make free throws even with his hyper-extended elbow. We held the ball against Kentucky in the second half to go to the Final Four. Then O'Koren came on and was great against UNLV. We lost to a really good Marquette team. Jimmy Boylan was terrific against us in the final – he once called wanting to transfer to Carolina, but I suggested he call Coach McGuire instead."

The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

The national semifinal was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Virginia and ACC Tournament champion UNC.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Ralph Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight's Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

Toronto-born and Bahamas-raised Rick Fox was joined in the starting lineup by seniors Pete Chilcutt (center) and King Rice (point guard), junior guard Hubert Davis and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Carolina cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double-digits, then beat Temple, 75-72, in the New Jersey Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon scored 31 points, but missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas, coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams, beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

"We were glad to get back to the Final Four in 1991," says Coach Smith. "We had great leadership with King Rice, Rick Fox and Pete Chilcutt. We didn't play well in Indianapolis against Kansas. We hadn't been to the Final Four in a while and I think we went back to being happy to be there."

UNC earned the No. 2 seed in the Southeast Region after losing in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and Wake Forest in the ACC championship game. Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Jerry Stackhouse's 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse was brilliant with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Donald Williams had 18 points, Rasheed Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Defending NCAA champion Arkansas beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game.

"That was a special year," says Coach Smith. "We lost five seniors and were not deep, but Stackhouse and Wallace were a year older and very talented. Before the regional final, we told the team Kentucky had their celebration party scheduled, and Stackhouse held up his hand and said, 'Yeah, I'm going to go to it and celebrate.' He was so fired up. What a great competitor. Kentucky was very good. It was tough winning in Birmingham. But I was really worried about stopping Allen Iverson and beating Georgetown. You never know what would have happened if Stackhouse had not gotten hurt against Arkansas."

JERRY STACKHOUSE was the MVP of the 1995 South Regional after leading UNC to wins over Georgetown and Kentucky.

1997

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 in the second half but lost by 10.

However, the Tar Heels ran off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament and earned another trip to the Final Four.

After sneaking by Fairfield in the first round, the Tar Heels beat Colorado, 73-56, in Winston-Salem to give Smith his 877th win, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final.

Carolina shot poorly in Indianapolis in the Final Four, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter had 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively.

"Fairfield was a remarkable game," says Smith. "That was probably our best offensive game since Loyola Marymount (1988), but they kept making threes. There was too much going on about the number of wins and the record. I thought it could affect us against Colorado. Then I was really impressed with our team against Louisville. We had a big lead and they cut it to six and I took a timeout. I said, 'We could let them have it, we've had a pretty good year,' and Ademola Okulaja spoke up and said 'What do you mean?' And we went on to beat them pretty badly."

Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Jamison, Carter and Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were the same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookie season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game.

Carolina beat UNC Charlotte in overtime in the second round behind Williams' 32 points, then toppled rising powers Michigan State and Connecticut in Greensboro by double-digit margins.

Utah built a 13-point halftime lead in the national semifinal and Carolina could never pull even, despite Carter's 21 points. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

The Tar Heels entered NCAA Tournament play as a No. 8 seed after a disappointing regular season that included a four-game losing streak and a first-round exit in the ACC Tournament. The No. 8 seed equaled the lowest in UNC history.

Center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory over Missouri in the first round.

Carolina, led by forward Jason Capel, stymied third-ranked and No. 1 seed Stanford in the second round, holding the Cardinal to 34 percent shooting. Freshman Joseph Forte led all scorers with 17 points.

Forte scored 22 points and Carolina overcame a seven-point deficit with Haywood on the bench to beat Tennessee, 74-69, in Austin, Texas, in the regional semifinal. Cota scored key late baskets and Carolina got stellar post play off the bench from Julius Peppers.

Forte had 28 points, eight rebounds in the regional final to beat Tulsa.

Carolina lost to Florida in the national semifinals in Indianapolis despite Haywood's 20 points and 12 rebounds. The Tar Heels overcame a 15-point deficit to take the lead in the second half, but fell behind after Cota went to the bench with four fouls.

The Tar Heels were the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and East Regional in 2008. Carolina was a No. 1 seed for an NCAA-record 12th time and the third time in four years (2005-07-08).

Carolina opened the NCAA Tournament by reaching the 100-point mark in consecutive games. The Tar Heels trounced Mount St. Mary's 113-74 and Arkansas 108-77 at the RBC Center in Raleigh. Danny Green's 12 first-half points keyed a 68-47 win over Washington State in Charlotte in the Sweet 16. Tyler Hansbrough was sensational in the 83-73 win over Louisville in the East Regional final. Hansbrough, who earned regional MVP honors, had 28 points and 13 rebounds against the Cardinals. He scored 20 second-half points, including a pair of jump shots in the final minutes that sealed the victory.

Kansas jumped out to a 40-12 lead over the Tar Heels in the national semifinals in San Antonio. UNC staged a dramatic comeback to pull within 54-50 with 11:15 to play before the Jayhaks pulled away for an 84-66 win.

The Tar Heels were the No. 1 seed in the East after defeating Pitt, Notre Dame and fourth-ranked Virginia to win the ACC Tournament. Carolina opened with wins in Raleigh over Florida Gulf Coast (behind Brice Johnson's eight blocks and a 20-0 edge in fastbreak points) and Providence (Johnson had 21 points and 10 rebounds and UNC shot 61 percent from the floor in the second half).

Marcus Paige sparked the 101-86 Sweet 16 win over Indiana with 21 points and six assists, hitting four of his six three-pointers before the first TV timeout. Johnson added 20/10 and three blocks and UNC limited the sharp-shooting Hoosiers to 41 percent from the floor. Johnson (regional MVP) became the first Tar Heel ever with three straight 20/10 games in the NCAA Tournament as he had 25 points and 12 boards in the regional final against Notre Dame. The Tar Heels shot 64 percent from the floor in the first half and 61.5 percent for the game, their highest ever in 26 regional finals.

Carolina beat Syracuse in the national semifinal in Houston in front of 75,505, largest crowd ever to see a UNC game. UNC led by 17 with 12 minutes to play before the Orange closed to within seven. Paige hit three 3FGs in the final 10 minutes and UNC pulled away to win by 17.

The Tar Heels set a national championship game record by making 11 of 17 three-pointers (.647), but a Kris Jenkins' three-pointer as time expired gave Villanova a 77-74 win and the title.

Paige led both teams with 21 points and six assists and Joel Berry II was 4 for 4 in three-pointers and had 20 points. UNC led 39-34 at the half, but fell behind 67-57 wth 5:29 to play. Paige scored eight points in the final 1:33, including an off-balance, double-clutch three with 4.7 seconds to play that tied the game at 74.

First-team All-America BRICE JOHNSON was the MVP of the 2016 East Regional and led UNC past Syracuse in the national semifinal in Houston.

The Wildcats shot 58.3 percent from the floor, highest against UNC all season, and made 8 of 14 from behind the arc.

The Tar Heels were an eight seed in the East and began its run to the Final Four with a 32-point win over Marquette, the largest margin in NCAA Tournament history in an 8/9 game. Caleb Love made six threes in the first half, Brady Manek scored a season-high 28 and RJ Davis had 12 assists.

UNC then beat No. 1 seed and defending champion Baylor, 93-86, in overtime in the second round in Fort Worth, Texas. UNC led by 25 midway through the second half but Baylor outscored the Tar Heels 38-13 to force overtime. Davis led UNC with a career-best 30 points, including a three-point play in extra time that clinched the win.

Love scored 27 second-half points and finished with a career-high 30 in Philadelphia in the Sweet 16 win over UCLA. In the regional final, the Tar Heels stifled 15-seed Saint Peter's and advanced to their 21st Final Four with a 69-49 win. Armando Bacot scored a game-high 20 points and tied the UNC record for rebounds in an NCAA Tournament game with 22. Bacot was named the Most Outstanding Player in the regional and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Love and Manek.

Hubert Davis became the 10th individual to lead his program to the Final Four in his first season as a college head coach. He would then become the fifth to take his team to the title game in his first season following Carolina's 81-77 win over Duke in the national semifinals in New Orleans. The game was the first UNC and Duke ever played in the NCAA Tournament.

Love made a key three-pointer with 24 seconds to play and led UNC with 28 points, Bacot had 21 rebounds and RJ Davis had 18 points, seven rebounds and four assists.

The Tar Heels led Kansas 40-25 at halftime in the championship game but the Jayhawks rallied for a 72-69 victory. The 15-point margin was the largest halftime deficit overcome in a national championship game.

Bacot had 15 points and 15 rebounds to become the first player in NCAA Tournament history to record six double-doubles in one season. Manek (13/13) and Davis (15/12) also had double-doubles and Puff Johnson came off the bench to score 11 points.

Bacot set the single-season UNC record for rebounds in an NCAA Tournament with 99 and Manek set the record for three-pointers with 22.

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

• Carolina has won 18 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and played in the championship game a record-tying 36 times.

• The Tar Heels have a 108-52 record in ACC Tournament history.

• Carolina has the second-most wins and titles.

• Dean Smith was the first coach to win 13 ACC Tournaments. Smith's teams were 58-23 and played in the championship game 21 times.

• Roy Williams went 29-15 with three titles and eight appearances in the championship game in 18 seasons. Williams' eight championship game appearances came against seven different opponents (played Virginia twice).

• Smith is second in wins and 13 titles; Williams is third in wins and tied for fifth with three championships.

• Smith and Williams are among the eight coaches to win back-to-back ACC Tournament titles (with Everett Case, Bones McKinney, Vic Bubas, Norm Sloan, Dave Odom and Mike Krzyzewski).

• The Tar Heels have earned the No. 1 seed 27 times. Duke is second with 18 No. 1 seeds followed by NC State and Virginia (6), Wake Forest (4), Maryland (3), Georgia Tech (2), Miami (2) and Clemson, Florida State and South Carolina (1).

• Carolina is one of only two schools that have won three consecutive ACC regular-season titles and ACC Tournament championships. UNC accomplished that feat in 1967-68-69. UNC is the only school that has done that while winning the regular-season title outright.

• A Tar Heel has won the Most Valuable Player award 19 times – Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charlie Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981), James Worthy (1982), J.R. Reid (1989), Rick Fox (1991), Jerry Stackhouse (1994), Shammond Williams (1997), Antawn Jamison (1998), Brandan Wright (2007), Tyler Hansbrough (2008) and Joel Berry II (2016).

• Tyler Hansbrough is the only Tar Heel to earn first-team All-Tournament honors three times.

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was named MVP.

1967

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was selected MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bobby Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. Dick Grubar (13.3 points, 4.7 rebounds) was also a first-team selection.

The 37-point margin of victory is the largest in championship game history.

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charlie Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott, who averaged 15 and 12.5 points per game in the tournament, respectively, also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in the semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

1982

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Virginia's Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as Carolina prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win.

Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors. Senior point guard Jeff Lebo (10.7 points, 3.0 assists) joined him on the first-team.

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Rick Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. UNC freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine rebounds to lead Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Carolina finished the game shooting 54.4 percent from the floor, while Duke hit on just 32.8 percent of its field goal attempts. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State. Prior to 2007, the last time UNC had won both a share of the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament in the same season was 1982.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reyshawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright joined UNC's Phil Ford (1978), Sam Perkins (1981) and Jerry Stackhouse (1994) and Duke's Jason Williams (2000) as those to accomplish the feat. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

The 2007 championship was Roy Williams' first as the Tar Heel head coach.

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

The Tar Heels came into the 2016 Tournament as the No. 1 seed for the 25th time overall and the seventh under head coach Roy Williams.

Carolina opened the Tournament by surrenduring the first eight points in its quarterfinal against No. 8 Pitt. The Panthers led by seven with 4:36 to play in the first half before the Tar Heels went on a 13-2 run to end the half. UNC shot 61.5 percent from the floor in the second and pulled away for an 88-71 win.

The Tar Heels dominated Notre Dame, a team that beat UNC on Feb. 6th in South Bend, in the semifinals. The 78-47 win was UNC's largest ever in the semifinals and Carolina's biggest in any ACC Tournament game since 1993. The Tar Heels led 23-22, then went on an 18-0 run to end the half. Marcus Paige led with 16 points and seven assists and Isaiah Hicks had a career-high 15 rebounds.

The top-seeded Tar Heels beat No. 2 Virginia, 61-57 to win the title, avenging a loss in the only regular-season meeting two weeks prior in Charlottesville. Tournament MVP Joel Berry II led UNC with 19 points.

The championship game was tied at 28-28 at the half and at 44-all with 8:25 to play. The Tar Heels went on a 9-2 run over the next 6:40, sparked by a three-pointer by Berry and a steal and dunk by Justin Jackson.

Berry averaged a team-high 17.0 points and was 17 for 24 from the floor, 7 for 10 from three-pointers and 10 from 10 from the free throw line over the three games en route to MVP honors.

Hubert Davis

Head Coach • 13th Year at Carolina • Fourth as Head Coach

Hubert Davis is in his fourth season as head coach at his alma mater and his 13th on the Tar Heel coaching staff.

Davis, 54 (turns 55 on May 17, 2025), has won National and ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors, led the Tar Heels to 78 wins, a 43-17 record in ACC play, a Final Four berth, an ACC regular-season championship, 19 road wins and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament in his first three years as head coach. Two of his Tar Heels – Armando Bacot and RJ Davis – are among the top-five scorers in Carolina history and have set numerous records for scoring, rebounding, three-pointers and double-doubles and earned national and All-ACC awards.

Davis has the second-most wins among UNC head coaches in their first three seasons. Bill Guthridge won 80 from 1997-2000, Davis has 78 and Roy Williams won 75 from 2003-06. Davis and Guthridge are the only Tar Heel coaches to win 20 or more games in each of their first three seasons.

Under Davis, Carolina is 7-2 in NCAA Tournament play, including wins against three NCAA championship-winning coaches (Baylor's Scott Drew, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski and Michigan State's Tom Izzo) and two other coaches who have taken teams to the Final Four (Marquette's Shaka Smart and UCLA's Mick Cronin).

Last year the Tar Heels were rewarded for winning the ACC regular-season title with a No. 1 seed in the NCAA West Regional, where they advanced to the Sweet 16. Davis was the fourth UNC head coach to earn a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament alongside Dean Smith, Guthridge and Williams.

Davis has led the Tar Heels to 13 wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including eight victories over top-10 teams (No. 4 Duke, No. 4 Baylor and No. 9 Duke in 2022; No. 6 Virginia in 2023; and No. 10 Tennessee, No. 7 Oklahoma, No. 7 Duke and No. 9 Duke in 2024). Davis, Guthridge and Williams are the only UNC coaches with eight wins over top-10 teams in their first three seasons (all with eight).

He was the 2024 ACC Coach of the Year. He received 49 of the 75 votes to become the fifth different Tar Heel head coach to win the award (Frank McGuire, Smith, Guthridge and Williams). Davis also won ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Associated Press, was the NABC's District 3 Coach of the Year and a semifinalist for the 2024 Naismith National Coach of the Year, the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year, the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year awards.

The 2023-24 Tar Heels went 17-3 in conference to win the regular-season ACC championship. The 17 wins tied the single-season ACC record for regular-season wins (Virginia was 17-1 in 2017-18), and the 17-3 record was the best since the ACC went to a 20-game schedule in 2019-20.

Carolina went 8-2 on the road in the ACC. That was the second time in Davis' three seasons the Tar Heels won seven or more road games in ACC play (7-3 in 2022). UNC clinched sole possession of first place in the 2024 ACC standings with an 84-79 win at ninth-ranked Duke. It was the second time in three seasons the Tar Heels closed the regular season with a victory at Duke.

RJ Davis was a landslide winner in the voting for 2024 ACC Player of the Year, was a unanimous first-team All-America (Associated Press, USBWA, NABC and Sporting News) and became the first Tar Heel to win the Jerry West Shooting Guard Award. He set UNC's single-season points record for a guard (784) and the made the most three-pointers in a season by a Tar Heel (113).

Bacot earned his third All-ACC award in 2024 and third-team All-America honors (USBWA) and was a finalist for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center Award. He finished his career as UNC's all-time leader in rebounds and double-doubles and second in scoring and is among the top 10 in ACC history in each of those categories and top 10 in NCAA history in rebounds and double-doubles.

Davis led the Tar Heels to the 2022 NCAA East Regional championship, a win at Cameron Indoor Stadium in Mike Krzyzewski's final home game, another win over the Blue Devils in a historic Final Four matchup and a berth in the national championship game in his first season as a head coach. The 1992 graduate of the University of North Carolina received two National Coach-of-the-Year awards as UNC won 17 of its last 21 games and came within a few possessions of securing the program's seventh NCAA Tournament title.

He was named the 20th head coach of the UNC men's basketball program on April 5, 2021, becoming the fourth former Tar Heel player to become UNC's head coach and the first Black head coach in Carolina men's basketball history.

Davis played for Dean Smith at Carolina from 1988-92 and was an assistant coach on Roy Williams' staff from 2012-21. He played a key role coaching, recruiting and scouting and was the head coach of the UNC junior varsity program for six seasons from 2013-19.

"I said (to Coach Davis) keep what's good but don't get stuck," UNC Director of Athletics Bubba Cunningham told the media at the 2022 Final Four. "Change what needs to be changed to be modern and current. And I think that's what Hubert brings — a current mentality to the historical tradition and success that we've had."

Davis led the Tar Heels to a 29-10 record in his rookie season as head coach. UNC went 15-5 in the ACC to tie Notre Dame for second place, just a game out of first. The Tar Heels went 7-3 on the road in league play, including five straight victories at Clemson, Louisville, Virginia Tech, NC State and fourth-ranked Duke when UNC won 11 of 13 games to conclude the regular season.

The 29 wins were the second most by an individual in his first season as Carolina's head coach and equaled the 10th most in NCAA history for a first-year head coach.

UNC entered the 2022 NCAA Tournament as an eight seed but played some of its best basketball in winning the East Regional. The Tar Heels had 51 assists on 62 field goals and sank 24 three-pointers in the first- and second-round wins over Marquette and Baylor, when they routed the Golden Eagles by 32 points and eliminated the defending NCAA champion Bears in overtime.

Carolina trailed UCLA with two minutes left in the Sweet 16 but went on an 8-0 run to beat the Bruins and overpowered Saint Peter's, 69-49, in the regional final to send the Tar Heels to the Final Four for a record 21st time.

"I want every player that played for Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams, whether it's in person, TV, highlights — I want them to be able to identify and go, 'That's the Carolina I went to,'" Davis said during the Final Four. "It's really important for me that this program, with my own personality in my own shoes, looks exactly like the program that Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams ran."

Davis became just the second individual to play for and serve as head coach of the same school in Final Four history; the fourth to take his team to the national championship game in his first season as a head coach; the seventh to play in and be a head coach in the Final Four; and the 10th to lead his team to the Final Four in his first season as a head coach.

The Tar Heels defeated Duke, 81-77, in the national semifinals, the first time the two great rivals have played in the NCAA Tournament. The game featured a dozen ties and 18 lead changes, 13 of which came in the second half. Over the final 15:42, the margin for either team exceeded a single possession for a little more than just one minute. Carolina would score nine different times in the second half either to break a tie or reverse the lead, including field goals or free throws by all five Tar Heel starters.

"Hubert Davis may be the nicest person I know, and he's the best father I've ever seen," Jay Bilas said to the Washington Post in New Orleans. "He's a perfect balance of cutthroat competitor and incredibly nice, thoughtful, empathetic person. He is an amazing person, and I'm not at all surprised knowing him that he is having this level of success this early."

"I tell the parents, 'I'm not your son's parent, but every decision I make will be filtered through what is in the best interests for your son and what I think you would do for your son,'" says Davis. "So, the same way I care for my three children is the same way I care for the players. I just want things to work out for them. Being a father helps me relate to the players because that's the way I coach."

Davis led Carolina to wins in March and April over the No. 4 (twice), No. 9 and No. 11-ranked teams in the AP poll. He won the Big House Gaines Award (National Sports Media Association) and John McLendon Award (CollegeInsider.com) as National Coach of the Year.

In Davis' first season as head coach, Armando Bacot earned third-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors, setting the single-season UNC record with 511 rebounds and tying David Robinson's NCAA record with 31 double-doubles; Brady Manek was named the top transfer in the country, coming to UNC after four seasons at Oklahoma, led the ACC in three-point percentage and averaged more than 18 points in three games vs. Duke; RJ Davis and Caleb Love alternated at point and shooting guard – Davis had 12 assists in the NCAA first round and 30 points vs. Baylor in round two; Love scored 30 against UCLA then 28 in the Final Four win over Duke; and Leaky Black became a lockdown defender, earning ACC All-Defensive team honors.

"It shows how much he cares about us and cares about the game," Love said during the NCAA Tournament. "We knew all along his passion, and we carried that with us. We feed off him and his energy. That's why you see us playing so hard for him."

"I just think Hubert is perfect for the job," Williams told USA Today during the Final Four. "He's the nicest person I've ever known, but then he's also fiercely competitive. When you put those two together, it's a pretty good mix. It's why I asked him to join our staff. But he hasn't just had me as an influence. He had Coach (Dean) Smith, Don Nelson and Pat Riley from when he was a player. He's got all of us, but then found a way to make it his. This run, he's put his fingerprints on it. It's his team. He's put Hubert Davis's stamp on North Carolina basketball. He's been absolutely sensational."

"I've never known a finer person in my entire life, who has a switch he turns on and can be as competitive as anybody around," says Williams. "He loves this program and has the same passion I do, and he'll be better than me."

In nine seasons on the bench with Williams, the Tar Heels played in eight NCAA Tournaments, advanced to the Final Four and national championship games in 2016 and 2017 and won the NCAA title in 2017. The Tar Heels went 228-95, including 107-60 in ACC regular-season play, winning the regular-season ACC title in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and the ACC Tournament in 2016.

Carolina earned three No. 1 seeds and a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament in those nine seasons.

The four-year run from 2016-19 was the best four-year NCAA seed average in UNC basketball history.

Davis helped coach 15 players who have played in the NBA, including 11 first-round draft picks – Cole Anthony, Tony Bradley, Reggie Bullock, P.J. Hairston, Justin Jackson, Brice Johnson, Cameron Johnson, Walker Kessler, Nassir Little, Day'Ron Sharpe and Coby White.

Brice Johnson and Jackson were consensus first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC selections; Jackson was the 2017 ACC Player of the Year and Cameron Johnson earned first-team All-ACC honors.

Jackson and Cameron Johnson are among the top three-point shooters in Carolina history. Johnson transferred to UNC from Pittsburgh and blossomed into the 11th pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Davis also coached Marcus Paige, who earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore in 2014 and set the UNC career record with 299 three-pointers, and Joel Berry II, the 2017 Final Four Most Outstanding Player.

Anthony set the ACC record for most points in a college debut and had the second-highest single-season scoring average by a Tar Heel freshman.

White set the UNC single-season record for most threes by a freshman and became the seventh pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Davis worked for seven years with ESPN as an analyst and co-host of the College GameDay program.

Born in Winston-Salem, N.C., Davis grew up in Burke, Va., where he attended Lake Braddock High School, the same high school UNC and US Soccer star Mia Hamm attended. Davis was a high school football teammate of future Olympic hurdles gold medalist Allen Johnson.

Davis played in 137 games as a Tar Heel from 1988-92, during which UNC went 102-37, won the 1989 and 1991 ACC Tournaments and played in the 1991 Final Four. He scored 1,615 points, an average of 11.8 per game. He still holds the UNC record for career three-point percentage at .435 (197 of 453). He scored in double figures 80 times with 23 games scoring 20 or more points.

"In 1987-88, I went with Coach Smith into Hubert's home," says Williams, who was an assistant at UNC when Davis was being recruited. "Coach Smith said, 'I don't know if you're ever going to be able to play here, Hubert, and I don't want to do this.' I got in the car with Coach, and I said, 'Coach, I think he'll play more than you think he will because I think he's so competitive and so driven.' Hubert told Coach Smith, 'You'll never know unless you give me a chance.' Coach Smith a couple days later called him and said, 'I listened to what you said and I'm going to offer you a scholarship to North Carolina.' Hubert committed to Coach Smith right then."

He scored in double figures in each of his last eight NCAA Tournament games, averaging 18.5 points in those games. That included 19 against Temple in the 1991 NCAA East Regional final and 25 against Kansas (coached by Williams) in the 1991 Final Four.

Davis averaged 21.4 points and earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior. He scored in double figures in 32 of 33 games that season, including 20 games with 20 or more points and 30 or more in four games. He netted a career-high 35 points at Duke on March 8, 1992. That 35-point game was part of a seven-game stretch late in the season in which he averaged 28.7 points.

The New York Knicks selected Davis with the 20th pick in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft. He played 12 seasons in the NBA, scoring 5,583 points, an average of 8.2 per contest. He made 728 three-point field goals and enters the 2024-25 season second in NBA history in career three-point percentage at .441.

Davis averaged double-figure scoring in four different seasons – a career-high 11.1 with Dallas in 1997-98 and with the Knicks in 1993-94 (11.0), 1994-95 (10.0) and 1995-96 (10.7).

He scored a career-high 32 points twice – as a second-year pro with the Knicks vs. Minnesota and in 2000 with Dallas against Seattle.

In 1993-94, he was fourth on the Knicks in scoring behind Patrick Ewing, John Starks and Charles Oakley as New York won 57 games and advanced to the NBA Finals, where they took Hakeem Olajuwon, Clyde Drexler and Kenny Smith to seven games (Doc Rivers and Greg Anthony were also Knicks that season).

He shot 40 percent or better from three-point range in eight seasons, including 1999-2000, when he led the NBA with a career-best 49.1 percent as a Maverick.

Davis shot 80 percent or better from the free throw line nine times. He connected on 83.7 percent of his career free throw attempts.

Davis played for NBA head coaches Pat Riley, Don Nelson, Jim Cleamons, Leonard Hamilton, Doug Collins, Rick Carlisle and Larry Brown. His NBA teammates included Anthony, Chauncey Billups, Ewing, Michael Finley, Richard Hamilton, Michael Jordan, Jason Kidd, Steve Nash, Dirk Nowitzki and Rivers.

"Hubert carved out a remarkable career in both longevity and achievement," said Jeff Van Gundy when Davis was named head coach. "He will go down as one of the GREAT shooters of his era and had an underrated pick and roll game. Hubert was what you want in a player... dependable, reliable, trustworthy and his work ethic were second to none. Hubert's character, basketball acumen and love of UNC will drive him in his quest to continue the long and storied championship tradition that he helped create as a player and as an assistant coach. I have no doubt that Hubert will be the next in line of Hall of Fame coaches from Chapel Hill with an NCAA championship in the near future."

Hubert's uncle, Walter, starred at UNC from 1973-77 and was a six-time NBA All-Star. He was the NBA Rookie of the Year in 1978 with the Phoenix Suns. Walter passed away in November 2023 and was elected posthumously to the Naismith Hall of Fame in April 2024.

Davis graduated from UNC in 1992 with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Leslie, have three children – Elijah, Gracie and Micah. Elijah is in his first season as a member of the UNC basketball team after three seasons at the University of Lynchburg, and Gracie is a sophomore at UNC.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT HUBERT DAVIS ...

WHAT COACHES, TV ANALYSTS SAY

"Hubie not only was one of the most accurate shooters in Mavs history, a 3-point wizard long before they were common, but he has a heart of gold who cares about his teammates, the organization and the community.

"UNC players and the entire global UNC community will benefit greatly from Hubie's wisdom."

Dallas Mavericks Owner Mark Cuban

"Hubert is a natural leader and a first-class person. He has an incredible passion for the University of North Carolina and guiding young people. Hubert's ability to teach the game of basketball is illustrated by the success of the teams he has coached early in his career. He is also an incredible communicator. Those two aspects of his personality are a great formula for success. That's what he will be as the head coach of the Tar Heels."

Leonard Hamilton, Florida State Head Coach

"I had the honor to work alongside Hubert for many years at ESPN, and I simply don't know a better person. Don't let the smile and laugh fool you, Hubert is a cutthroat competitor with an uncommon understanding of the game. And he bleeds Carolina Blue. Hubert is the real deal."

ESPN Analyst Jay Bilas

"When you send your child to play for someone, you want to trust that what you see is what you get. That's Hubert. He always knew that Hubert truly cared about him. Through his struggles, he saw who cared. And Hubert was the head of that, and that's why we could not be more thrilled to be part of the Carolina Family."

Cole might be 50 or 60 years old, and he will always be part of that Carolina Family. That's something you can't put a price on. They take tremendous pride in the Carolina world of being part of that family."

Greg Anthony, NBA veteran, father of Cole Anthony

"Happy for my brother Hubert Davis. So many people don't understand that UNC isn't a basketball program, it's a Fifth-Generation family. Hubert is the connector because he played for Coach Smith and coached with Roy. He'll do well."

NC Central Head Coach LeVelle Moton

"Having worked with Hubert Davis at ESPN, he has been so passionate over Carolina Basketball. He has great knowledge of the game plus he knows what it means to wear the Carolina Blue."

"This is a super person. He is classy in every way, and he really bleeds the colors of Tar Heel blue. He has such a passion. …I talked to Roy Williams yesterday. He raved about Hubert. He raved about him. He didn't have to rave to me, because I know. I've worked with him. He's a super person as well.

"I tip the hat to North Carolina saying, 'We've got a guy right here. He's given his heart and soul to our university, heart and soul. He has earned the right to represent our school.'"

ESPN Analyst Dick Vitale

"Hubert Davis is as fine a person as I know. His integrity and character are beyond reproach. I've seen him coach and develop players both on and off the floor. He is truly a gifted coach, teacher of the game and mentor. Any parent would love to send their son to play for Hubert. He makes everyone he meets feel important because they are important to him. Humble. Genuine. Fiercely competitive. Puts others before himself. Loves North Carolina. He has the utmost respect and appreciation for all he learned from Roy Williams, and his NBA experience will be a huge benefit too. I can't imagine a better choice. Hubert will crush it as the Tar Heels' head coach."

ESPN College Gameday Host Rece Davis

"It's far more significant than just another hire. Duke has never had a Black head coach. Kansas has never had a Black head coach. Kentucky had one. UCLA hasn't had a Black head coach since the 1980s. All those programs have had a whole lot of Black players. But I can count the Black head coaches on one hand. The Hubert Davis hire matters. It means something that he's the first Black man to lead that North Carolina program…Hubert Davis is a great step forward."

ESPN Commentator Stephen A. Smith

"What Hubert's done with his first year, to get his team to do that is magnificent."

Former Duke Head Coach Mike Krzyzewski, April 2022

"I think from start to finish, his team improved the most in college basketball. Without question. Not even close. I don't think that any of us could have predicted that they'd be in the Final Four in his first year in the final game in the national championship."

Kenny Smith, former Tar Heel and NBA guard, TNT Analyst

WHAT HIS PLAYERS SAY

"I appreciate what Coach Davis shows us through the examples that not just he sets, but all the coaches do. They're all family men, they all are in their kids' lives. They just take pride in being big brothers and fathers to us. And we really all appreciate that."

Armando Bacot

"His experience (means) a lot, because when we get rattled, he just reminds us he's been in that position before. He just gets us under control."

Leaky Black

"Coaching is his passion. Not very many people are as genuine as him. He really gives off a high spirit. He's about his religion, his family, and all of that, and I am as well, and seeing how successful he is, I just want to follow in his footsteps."

Leaky Black

"Coach Davis wants to be involved in your life; he reaches out, tries to understand every player for who they are and gets to know them and just helps us through any situation. As a coach, he pushes you hard every day, he brings the same energy every day. Throughout the year, when we were down or when we were winning, he was the same guy every day. We're up 20, he's yelling at us. We're down 20, he's yelling at us, but he's not yelling at us in a bad manner. He's yelling at us as encouragement and trying to get us to keep playing hard."

Brad Frederick

Assistant Coach • 12th Year at Carolina

This is Brad Frederick's 12th season on the men's basketball staff at Carolina, having played for the Tar Heels under Dean Smith and Bill Guthridge. He is in his fourth year as an assistant under head coach Hubert Davis following eight seasons as a member of Roy Williams' staff.

Frederick helped Carolina win the 2024 ACC regular-season championship and earn a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. In 2022, Carolina won the East Regional and beat Duke in the national semifinal in New Orleans to advance to the national championship game in Frederick's fifth trip to the Final Four. As a player the Tar Heels appeared in two Final Fours, and he was on Williams' staff when UNC played in the 2016 and 2017 Final Fours.

He has coached 22 players who have earned All-ACC honors, two ACC Players of the Year and three first-team All-Americas.

Frederick joined Williams' staff at UNC in 2013. That came after 14 seasons under the direction of Kevin Stallings at Vanderbilt.

As a player, Frederick began his career on the junior varsity team as a freshman, where he played for Phil Ford. He earned a promotion to the UNC varsity team as a sophomore in Dean Smith's final season as head coach and played two seasons under head coach Bill Guthridge. The Tar Heels went 86-21 in his three seasons on the varsity team. He played in 70 games and was part of UNC teams that won the 1997 and 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament titles and reached two Final Fours.

Frederick played on Tar Heel teams that featured future NBA standouts Vince Carter and Antawn Jamison, as well as point guard Ed Cota. He was one of three seniors in 1999 along with Ademola Okulaja and Scott Williams.

Since joining the UNC staff, Carolina had its highest four-year NCAA seed run ever (three No. 1s and a No. 2 from 2016-19), won the 2017 NCAA title, played in the 2016 and 2022 national championship games, won three NCAA regionals, three regular-season ACC titles and an ACC Tournament title.

Frederick began his coaching career in 2000 at Vanderbilt. During his final season at Vanderbilt, Frederick held the longest tenure of any assistant coach in the Southeastern Conference. While in Nashville, the Commodores won an SEC Tournament title, were ranked in the final AP poll and played in the NCAA Tournament six times, advancing twice to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Frederick is married to the former Jocelyn Isenburg. They have two sons, Benjamin and Sawyer, and a daughter, Carson. Brad's father, the late Dr. Bob Frederick, was the athletic director at Kansas for 14 years and served as chairman of the NCAA Division I Basketball Committee.

Jeff Lebo

Assistant Coach • Fourth Year at Carolina

Jeff Lebo is in his fourth season as assistant coach at UNC, where he starred as a sharp-shooting guard from 1985-89 under legendary head coach Dean Smith.

The captain of the 1989 Atlantic Coast Conference champions and a 20-year veteran as a collegiate head coach joined the basketball staff at his alma mater prior to the 2021-22 season. In his first three seasons as the most veteran member of Hubert Davis' staff, the Tar Heels have won 78 games, including going 43-17 in ACC play, earned a Final Four berth, an ACC regular-season championship and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Lebo played at UNC for Smith and assistant coaches Bill Guthridge, Eddie Fogler, Roy Williams and Phil Ford. He was a teammate for one season at UNC with current head coach Hubert Davis.

In 1989, Lebo won the Patterson Medal, the most prestigious award given annually to a Tar Heel student-athlete based on exceptional career achievements. Following his senior season, Lebo held at least 10 UNC records. He was Carolina's leader in single-game and career three-pointers made, single-season and career three-point percentage, career three-point attempts, single-season and career free throw percentage, consecutive made free throws, single-game assists and career assist-turnover ratio.

Following his playing career in Chapel Hill, Lebo played part of one season with the San Antonio Spurs, then embarked on a coaching career during which he spent eight seasons at three schools as an assistant coach and 20 seasons as head coach at Tennessee Tech, Chattanooga, Auburn and ECU. He also was an assistant coach with the Greensboro Swarm, the G-League affiliate of the Charlotte Hornets, in 2019-20.

Lebo was 327-278 (.540) as a head coach, winning 20 or more games five times, including at least one season at all four schools. His 2001-02 Tennessee Tech team went 27-7 in winning the Ohio Valley Conference regular-season title for the second consecutive season.

The Carlisle, Pa., native won 116 games at ECU, establishing him as the Pirates' winningest coach since the program joined Division I in 1965.

Lebo began his coaching career as an assistant at ETSU from 1990-92, then joined Fogler at Vanderbilt for the 1992-93 season. The Commodores won the SEC championship and advanced to the Sweet 16. He coached with Fogler at South Carolina from 1993-98, winning an SEC title in 1997 and playing in two NCAA Tournaments.

In 1998-99 he began his head coaching career at Tennessee Tech. In his third season the Golden Eagles won 20 games for the first time since 1946-47. They won a school-record 27 games in 2001-02, earning the school's first post-season appearance since 1963. Tennessee Tech won three times in the 2002 NIT before losing at eventual champion Memphis.

Peyton Williams

Lebo was named OVC Coach of the Year in 2000, 2001 and 2002 and the 2002 NABC District 7 Coach of the Year.

He then accepted the head coaching position at Chattanooga, where he took over a program without a returning starter or a signee for the upcoming season. However, he led the Mocs to a 21-9 mark in the first season, the program's first 20-win season in six years.

In 2004, Lebo was named head coach at Auburn, where the Tigers were facing NCAA sanctions. His teams won 96 games in six seasons, including 24, then the second-most in Auburn history, in 2008-09.

As a player at North Carolina, Lebo's teams went 116-25 overall, including 44-12 in regular-season ACC play, won the ACC regular-season title in 1987 and 1988, the ACC Tournament in 1989, and advanced to two NCAA regional finals and two other Sweet 16s.

Lebo and his wife, Melissa, a native of Williamston, N.C., and 1991 UNC graduate, are the parents of two daughters, Addison and Mills, and a son, Creighton, a member of the Carolina basketball team for the previous four seasons.

Sean May

Assistant Coach • 10th Year at Carolina

Sean May, the Most Outstanding Player of the 2005 NCAA Final Four, is in his fourth season as assistant coach and 10th on the basketball staff at his alma mater. In his first three seasons on the bench, May helped lead UNC to the 2022 Final Four and a berth in the national championship game, a regular-season ACC championship and No. 1 NCAA Tournament seed in 2024.

May mentored Armando Bacot, who set UNC career records for rebounds and double-doubles, finished second in UNC scoring and was top 10 in the ACC in all three categories. Bacot became the first player in NCAA history with double-doubles in six NCAA Tournament games in one season and compiled the most rebounds by any college basketball player in 60 seasons.

May was director of basketball operations for four seasons under Hall of Fame head coach Roy Williams. While working for Williams, he helped the Tar Heels advance to consecutive national championship games and the 2017 NCAA title.

May played three seasons at Carolina from 2002-05, becoming the first Tar Heel in more than 30 years to average a double-double for his career.

May scored 26 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the 2005 national championship game victory over Illinois, a game played on his 21st birthday. He was sensational throughout Carolina's six-game march to the national title, averaging 22.3 points and 10.7 rebounds. He made 52 of 78 shots from the floor in the NCAA Tournament, an astonishing 66.7 percent.

He was selected Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Year as a junior after averaging 17.5 points and 10.5 rebounds, shooting 56.7 percent from the floor and posting 18 double-doubles, including eight in a row and 13 in UNC's final 16 games.

In 2005, he was also named the ACC's Top Male Athlete, a first-team All-America, first-team All-ACC and MVP of the NCAA East Regional.

In his final home game at the Dean E. Smith Center, May had 26 points and 24 rebounds against Duke, a 75-73 win that clinched the ACC regular-season title. The 24 rebounds are still the most by any player in a game in Smith Center history.

Anthony Sorbellini

His three-year, 77-game totals at Carolina included 1,213 points, 771 rebounds, 94 blocks and 100 steals. He shot 51.3 percent from the floor.

May entered the NBA Draft after his junior season and earned his degree in 2009. Due to injuries, he was limited to 119 NBA games over four seasons. He scored a career-high 32 points against Dwight Howard and the Orlando Magic and averaged a career-high 11.9 rebounds and 6.7 rebounds for Charlotte in 2006-07. He also played professionally overseas.

May is one of four father-son combinations to win NCAA titles. His dad, Scott, was the 1976 National Player of the Year and led Indiana to a perfect 32-0 season and NCAA title.

He and his wife, Grace, have four daughters – Layla, Lilianna, London and Luna.

Assistant Coach/Director of Recruiting • Seventh Year at Carolina

Pat Sullivan is in his 12th season as a Tar Heel, including five as a player (1990-95) and seven in two different stints on Dean Smith's, Bill Guthridge's and Hubert Davis' staffs.

In the first three seasons of his second run as a member of the UNC coaching staff, the Tar Heels have won 78 games, including going 43-17 in ACC play, earned a Final Four berth, an ACC regular-season championship and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

The 2022 Final Four was Pat Sullivan's seventh as a Tar Heel. He played in 1991, 1993 and 1995, was on Smith's staff in 1997, an assistant coach in 1998 and 2000 and the 2022 Final Four capped his first season as director of recruiting for Davis, a former UNC teammate.

Sullivan played for Smith at Carolina from 1990-93 and 1994-95 (he requested to red-shirt the 1993-94 season) and was part of Bill Guthridge's staff with Phil Ford and Dave Hanners that won NCAA regional titles and advanced to the Final Four in 1998 and 2000. Carolina won the 1993 NCAA championship in Sullivan's junior season.

He has played in more NCAA Tournament games (19) and more NCAA Tournament wins (17) than any Tar Heel in history and is one of seven Tar Heels who have played in three Final Fours.

Sullivan was a member of Hall of Famer Larry Brown's staff with the Detroit Pistons when they won the NBA championship in 2003-04. He served as assistant coach with the Pistons in 2004-05, with the New Jersey Nets from 2005-08, the Pistons again from 2008-11, the Washington Wizards from 2012-16, the Los Angeles Clippers from 2016-18 and the New York Knicks from 2018-20. In 2020-21, he was a player development and defensive assistant with the Minnesota Timberwolves.

As an NBA assistant coach, Sullivan worked for numerous head coaches, including Brown, Doc Rivers, Lawrence Frank and Randy Wittman, and helped coach a number of former Tar Heel standouts and other NBA stars, including: Bradley Beal, Chauncey Billups, Reggie Bullock, Vince Carter, Ed Davis, Wayne Ellington, Raymond Felton, Blake Griffin, Richard Hamilton, Richard Jefferson, Allen Iverson, Jason Kidd, Tracy McGrady, Chris Paul, Paul Pierce, Julius Randle, D'Angelo Russell, Karl-Anthony Towns, John Wall, Ben Wallace and Rasheed Wallace.

The Bogota, N.J., native scored 478 points in 118 games as a Tar Heel. He famously made the front end of a 1-and-1 with 20 seconds to play in the 1993 NCAA title game against Michigan to give UNC a two-point lead, a game the Tar Heels went on to win, 77-71.

Maggie Hobson

The Tar Heels advanced to the ACC Tournament championship game in each of his five seasons as a player, winning the title in 1991 and 1994.

He was a college teammate with Davis from 1990-92 and was on the Pistons' staff in 2003 when Davis played in Detroit for half a season.

Prior to joining the Carolina coaching staff in October 1997, Sullivan was the head coach at Hale High School in Raleigh in 1995-96 and spent a season on Coach Smith's staff as an administrative assistant and assistant video coordinator.

He and his wife, Sara, have a son, Collin, and daughter, Olivia.

PLAY HARD SMART TOGETHER

"When we were here, we were young and we had no idea what the world was about and how much you learn at Carolina. But it paved the way for me to accomplish what I've accomplished, both as a person and as a basketball player. It's all because of this university and that Carolina brotherhood."
— Antawn Jamison, National Player of the Year and NBA All-Star

THE SMITH CENTER

Carolina led the nation in home attendance in each of the last two seasons, averaging 20,593 fans per game in the Smith Center in 2023-24.

"Saturday games in the Smith Center are more than electric. They are magical. The energy is incredible outside just when you're driving up on a Saturday. There's that same energy when you run through the tunnel. It's just lit. Our crowds are always great and our fans are terrific. Saturday afternoon ACC games are awesome."

DEAN E. SMITH CENTER

Jeffrey Camarati

The 2024-25 season is the 40th in which the Tar Heels will play in the Dean E. Smith Center. UNC has played over 500 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of nearly 11 million fans. Carolina enters the 2024-25 campaign 477-87 in the Smith Center, a winning percentage of 84.6.

The Tar Heels are annually one of the nation's attendance leaders and have been for decades.

The first game in the Smith Center featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeaten teams on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith.

RENOVATIONS

The Smith Center has undergone a number of improvements to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas, including installing LED lights in 2023 and naming the court after Roy Williams and upgrading the video boards in 2018. UNC completed full renovations of the lockerrooms, training room and the addition of a team video room and dining room prior to the 2016-17 season.

The building added a new ribbon board surrounding the court for the 2012-13 season. The basketball offices were overhauled and expanded in 2010.

The arena's lights and sound system were replaced and the training, weight and equipment rooms were expanded and renovated for 2009-10. A hydrotherapy room was added for the 2008-09 season.

In 2008, the Carolina Basketball Museum opened in the new Williamson Athletics Center, adjacent to the Koury Natatorium. The museum underwent a $1.5 million renovation in 2017.

In 2006-07, the seats in the lower level and upper level ring were replaced. The playing floor was completely refinished and refurbished for the 2007-08 campaign.

Four high-resolution video boards were installed for the 2005-06 season. At the same time, two 50-foot ribbon boards were added to the fascia around the upper level and a 40-foot video board was added to the front of the scorer's table.

In 2000-01, a standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

ORIGINS

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres of the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

"Every time I come in the Smith Center, I sneak a look up there every couple of minutes. I just have to make sure it's still up there, that the big number 33 is still hanging. When I see it up there, it takes me back to coming into Carolina with a bald head and a little mustache. Even at the time, you knew you were going to treasure those memories forever. When I was walking off the court the night of the alumni game (in 2009), I grabbed my son and took a second and pointed out that jersey with 'Jamison' on the banner. There are no words to describe what that felt like. I felt like I was showing him the past and the future all at the same time."

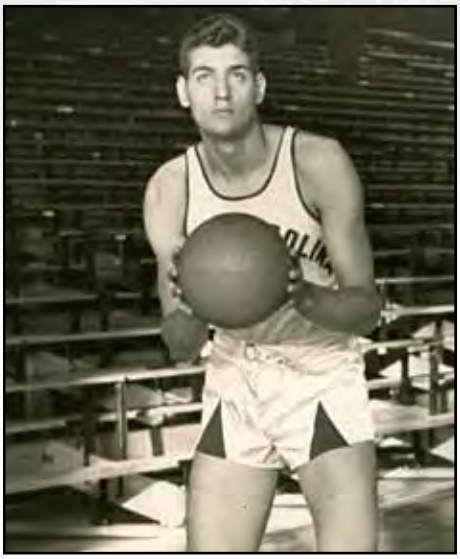
CAROLINA BASKETBALL TIMELINE



George Glamack won National Player of the Year honors in 1940 and '41.

Jan. 27, 1911: Carolina defeats Virginia Christian, 42-21, in first game. Marvin "Philly" Ritch, considered the Father of UNC Basketball, is the team's first captain and leading scorer.

Feb. 22, 1913: Carolina plays the North Carolina College of Agricultural and Mechanic Arts (NC State) for the first time in any sport since 1906. The Tar Heels lost that first encounter, 26-18. The teams would not play again until the 1919 state championship.

Dec. 29, 1913: Meb Long, UNC's first great scorer, scored 23 points in a win over the Charlotte YMCA. Long became the first Tar Heel to score 20 points in a game. Two weeks earlier, Meb and Cyrus Long became the first brothers to play basketball for UNC.

Feb. 19, 1914: Ben Edwards plays for Guilford in a 38-13 UNC victory. Earlier in the year, Edwards played in six games for Carolina, thus becoming the first and only player to play for and against the Tar Heels in the same season.

Feb. 20, 1915: Lynchburg YMCA wins 63-20, the most lopsided loss in UNC history.

Jan. 24, 1920: Billy Carmichael scored 16 points in a 36-25 win over Trinity in the first-ever basketball game between the two schools located eight miles apart. Carmichael led the team in scoring in 1919-20 (10.8 ppg) and was later the University's controller and acting president. Carmichael Auditorium is named in his honor.

Feb. 26, 1921: Cartwright Carmichael scored 15 points in a win over Virginia and sets UNC's single-season scoring record, surpassing Meb Long and ending the year with 286 points.

Feb. 28, 1922: Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald lead UNC to a 40-26 win over Mercer for Southern Conference Tournament title.

Feb. 29, 1924: En route to an undefeated season the Tar Heels play and beat Kentucky for the first time, a 41-20 win in the first round of the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta. Jack "Sprat" Cobb scored 17 points.

March 4, 1924: Jack Cobb's 15 points almost single-handedly outscores Alabama in a 26-16 win in the Southern Conference title game. UNC finishes 26-0 and the Helms Foundation later selects Carolina as national champions. Cobb leads all scorers with a single-season school record 353 points. Cobb, Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald combine to average 28 of UNC's 36.9 points per game.

Jan. 24, 1925: John Purser scores 10 points to lead UNC to a 25-21 win at Duke's Memorial Gymnasium. It was the first game ever played between North Carolina and Duke as the school formerly known as Trinity changed its name less than four weeks prior to the game.

Feb. 12, 1925: Head cheerleader Vic Huggins introduces Rameses, the school's first ram mascot, at halftime of UNC's 28-27 loss to South Carolina.

Feb. 18, 1926: A 17-8 loss to NC State marks the fewest points in UNC history, but two weeks later, Carolina beats Mississippi State to win the Southern Conference Tournament.

Feb. 27, 1932: Virgil Weathers' basket with less than 30 seconds to play gives Carolina a 43-42 win over Adolph Rupp's top-seeded Kentucky in the second round of the Southern Conference Tournament. It would prove to be the final time the two schools played one another as members of the same conference.

1933-34: The first season in which Carolina wore numbers on its jerseys. Also, Dave McCachren was captain, marking the first of four brothers from Charlotte (Jim 1936, Bill 1939 and George 1943) to captain the team.

The game was called the greatest comeback in the history of Southern basketball. Andy Bershak, who won All-America honors in football, scored the go-ahead basket and led UNC with 15 points.

Feb. 10, 1941: Two-time All-America George Glamack scores a record 45 points in a 76-53 win over Clemson. Later that year, UNC loses to Pittsburgh and Dartmouth in first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

Kansas '53

✓ Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 95 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came as no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight and surpassed again in 2011 by Mike Krzyzewski.

• Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

• Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run was the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Carolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

• Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith.

• His teams played in 11 Final Fours.

• Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

• In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

• Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continued to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated and received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the ESPY Awards. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007. In November 2013, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award in the U.S.

He received the Naismith Good Sportsmanship Award in 2011. Upon the announcement of that honor, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski said, "Dean set the standard for basketball – and not just college basketball – that everyone is still trying to reach. He demanded that his teams play as one. And what he got in return from all these guys who played for him was the intense loyalty that they feel toward him. And that's something I've admired since I started coaching. It's really one of the great things in all of sport: that intense loyalty the Tar Heel players have for Coach Smith."

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say:

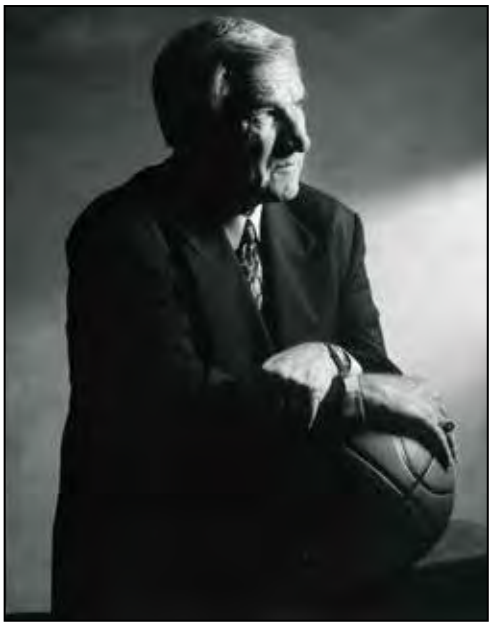
John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the gold medal against a group of improving international teams.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.



Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

DEAN SMITH

Hugh Morton

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Knight.

He was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his abåility to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack, but he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a man-to-man, pressure to speed up the action.

Among Smith's many innovations were the Four Corners offense, crediting the passer, the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the freelance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents did not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches, as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who went on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the U.S. and overseas.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith also coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game.

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

When he retired, Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories. In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, and Knight are the only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven previous occasions as well— 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

Smith died on February 7, 2015, in Chapel Hill.

Roy Williams retired on April 1, 2021, with the third-most wins by a Division I head coach and the sixth-highest winning percentage in college basketball history.

Inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007, Williams was a college head coach for 33 seasons at two of the three winningest programs in the sport's history. He won 418 games in 15 seasons at Kansas from 1988-2003 and 485 games in 18 seasons at UNC, his alma mater, from 2003-21. He is the second-winningest coach all-time at Carolina and is now third at KU. He is the only coach in college basketball history to win 400 games at two schools.

Williams is one of 12 Tar Heels enshrined in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, joining a group that includes Dean Smith, Michael Jordan, James Worthy, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, Bob McAdoo, Charlie Scott, Bobby Jones and George Karl.

ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News and Fox Sports named Williams the Coach of the Decade for 2000-09, a 10-year span during which he won 33 NCAA Tournament games, including two national titles among five Final Four appearances at KU and Carolina.

The Asheville, N.C., native won his 900th game when the Tar Heels beat Florida State on February 27, 2021, reaching 900 wins in fewer games and fewer seasons than any other coach in history. His 903rd and final win came against Virginia Tech in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament on March 11, 2021. He finished his career with a 903-264 record. The 903 wins rank third behind only Mike Krzyzewski and Jim Boeheim and his winning percentage of .774 is sixth all-time, third highest in the last 45 seasons and the highest in his 33 seasons among Power 5 conference coaches.

Williams grew up in the Biltmore neighborhood in Asheville. He attended Roberson High, where he played for Coach Buddy Baldwin. He played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69, earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and a master's degree in teaching in 1973. After five seasons as the head coach at Owen High School in Black Mountain, N.C., Williams joined Dean Smith's UNC staff, where he served as an assistant coach from 1978-88.

Williams led UNC to NCAA championships as a head coach in 2005, 2009 and 2017 and was an assistant when the Tar Heels won the title in 1982. He is the only head coach to win three national championships at his alma mater and one of six – with John Wooden, Krzyzewski, Adolph Rupp, Bob Knight and Jim Calhoun – to win at least three titles.

Williams is second all-time in college basketball in 30-win seasons (12) and fourth in 20-win seasons (29), has the most wins over No. 1-ranked teams in the AP poll (8) and averaged more wins per season (27.4) than any coach with 800 or more wins. His teams won 18 regular-season conference championships, tied for the fifth most all-time.

He won national coach-of-the-year honors nine times (1990, 1991, 1992, 1997, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2017, 2019) and was the conference coach of the year nine times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2011). His teams were ranked in 84.4 percent of the AP polls, including 61.5 percent in the top 10 and 29 weeks at No. 1. His teams earned a No. 1 ranking in 13 seasons and in 18 years were ranked at least second in the nation.

Williams won 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800 and 900 games in fewer seasons than any coach in college basketball history.

Williams ranks with Smith and Krzyzewski as the most accomplished coaches in ACC history, ranking third in wins (485), third in ACC regular-season and Tournament wins (241), third in regular-season ACC titles (9), third in road wins (93), fourth in road winning percentage in league play (.621) and fifth in regular-season winning percentage (.693).

His teams defined success in NCAA Tournament play, where he retired second in wins (79), games (106) and No. 1 seeds (13); third in appearances (30), winning percentage (.745), Final Four wins (9) and championship game appearances (6); and fourth in titles (3) and Final Fours (9). Over his last 20 years, Williams' teams won 54 NCAA Tournament games, more than any other coach in the nation. Carolina's 45 NCAA Tournament wins in the Williams era were more than any other school in those 18 seasons. Carolina was a No. 1 seed in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and a No. 2 in 2018, the best four-year stretch of seeding in school history.

Only Kentucky, UNC, Duke, UCLA and Kansas have more NCAA Tournament wins than Williams. His teams went 29-1 in the first round, 19-10 in the second, 13-6 in the Sweet 16, 9-4 in the Elite 8, 6-3 in the national semifinals and 3-3 in the championship game.

Carolina went 45-13 in the NCAA Tournament under Williams, a winning percentage of .776 that is the highest in ACC history. The 45 wins under Williams are more than 13 current or former ACC schools have won in their NCAA Tournament histories. He is the only coach to win an NCAA Tournament game in 20 consecutive seasons (1990-2009) and the only coach to win 29 straight first-round games.

In 2005, Carolina went 33-4 and won the NCAA title in Williams' second year as head coach, just two years removed from back-to-back seasons when the Tar Heels failed to make the NCAA Tournament field.

The 2009 squad is considered one of the most dominant championship teams, becoming the first NCAA champion to win all six games by a dozen or more points. Carolina won by an average of 20.2 points, the highest margin in 13 years, trailed in the second half just once and led Michigan State by a record 21 points at halftime in the national championship game.

Williams led the Tar Heels to back-to-back national championship games in 2016 and 2017. UNC lost the title to Villanova on a last-second three-pointer in '16, but beat top-seed Gonzaga, 71-65, to win the 2017 title. It marked the fourth time in NCAA history a school won the championship a year after losing in the finals.

Under Williams, Carolina earned 10 No. 1 or No. 2 NCAA Tournament seeds, won three ACC Tournament championships and averaged 26.9 wins and 11.8 regular-season ACC wins per season. Carolina had 11 top-10 finishes in the Associated Press poll, and produced 21 All-Americas, 17 first-team All-ACC selections, 22 first-round NBA Draft picks, six ACC scholar-athletes of the year and seven Academic All-Americas. Five times multiple Tar Heels were selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, including four players in 2005 and 2012 and three in 2009 and 2019.

Williams set UNC records for most wins in one year (36 in 2007-08), two years (70 in 2008-09), three years (101 from 2007-09), four years (124 from 2006-09), five years (157 from 2005-09), six years (177 from 2005-10), seven years (206 from 2005-12), eight years (228, 2011-18 and 2012-19), nine years (263 from 2005-13), 10 years (292 from 2008-17) and 15 years (434 from 2004-19).

His teams dominated at home, posting a record of 444-57 (.886). He led the Jayhawks to a 201-17 record (.922) in Allen Fieldhouse, at one point winning 62 consecutive games. The Tar Heels went 243-41 at home under Williams (including 241-40 at the Smith Center) and set the UNC record for consecutive home wins with 31.

In 15 seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks averaged 27.9 wins, including

In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first Big 12 team to go 16-0 in league play. From 1995-98, Kansas was a combined 123-17 – an average of 30.8 wins per season.

Williams' players won numerous awards:

• four National Players of the Year – Drew Gooden (2002), Nick Collison (2003), Sean May (2005) and Tyler Hansbrough (2008);

• 46 academic all-conference selections;

• and he is the only coach with two Academic All-Americas of the Year (Jacque Vaughn at Kansas, Tyler Zeller at UNC).

His players have earned nearly $1.3 billion in NBA salary. Paul Pierce was the 2008 NBA Finals MVP after leading the Boston Celtics to the title; Danny Green set the NBA Finals record with 27 three-pointers in 2013 and has won three NBA titles; Harrison Barnes won a title with Golden State in 2015 and was a starter with the Warriors when they set the NBA single-season record with 73 wins in 2016.

Tyler Hansbrough became the most decorated player in Carolina Basketball history and set the all-time ACC scoring mark with 2,872 points. He is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors in each of his four seasons. He also became Carolina's all-time leading rebounder, set the NCAA record for free throws made, won an NCAA title and National Player of the Year honors and earned his degree.

Carolina ranked in the top four nationally in scoring seven times and his teams averaged 80 points or more 23 times. Overall, his teams finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring 13 times, in scoring margin 18 times, in field goal percentage 12 times, in win-loss percentage 13 times and in field goal defense four times. Also, his teams finished in the top seven nationally in assists in 14 of the last 20 years and in the top 10 nationally in rebounding margin in 18 of the last 25 years. The Tar Heels led the nation in rebounds and rebound margin in three of his last five seasons.

In 43 seasons on the bench as a college head and assistant coach, Williams was part of 1,178 wins in 1,503 games, a win percentage of .784.

Sally Sather

1957

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was MVP.

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was named MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Dick Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. The 37-point margin of victory is the largest in championship game history.

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charles Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Bob McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Hugh Morton

Naismith Hall of Famer Bob McAdoo was the 1972 ACC Tournament MVP.

1975

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in the semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Virginia's Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as UNC prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win. Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors.

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Rick Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, barely missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine boards to lead UNC past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reyshawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington and Marcus Ginyard were named to the ACC All-Tournament First Team.

Virginia Tech led most of the game in the semifinals. Ellington hit a pair of three-pointers late to tie the game before Hansbrough hit a baseline jump shot with 0.8 seconds left for a 68-66 win. Ellington made 10 of 13 shots from the floor and had 24 points in the championship game win over Clemson.

Hansbrough had 26 points and nine rebounds against the Hokies and 18 points and 11 rebounds in the finals to earn MVP honors.

Carolina opened the Tournament by surrendering the first eight points in its quarterfinal against No. 8 Pitt. The Panthers led by seven with 4:36 to play in the first half before the Tar Heels went on a 13-2 run to end the half. UNC shot 61.5 percent from the floor in the second and pulled away for an 88-71 win.

The Tar Heels dominated Notre Dame in the semifinals. The 78-47 win was UNC's largest ever in the semifinals and Carolina's biggest in any ACC Tournament game since 1993. The Tar Heels led 23-22, then went on an 18-0 run to end the half. Marcus Paige led with 16 points and seven assists and Isaiah Hicks had a career-high 15 rebounds.

The top-seeded Tar Heels beat No. 2 Virginia, 61-57 to win the title, avenging a loss in their only regular-season meeting two weeks prior in Charlottesville. Tournament MVP Joel Berry II led UNC with 19 points.

The championship game was tied at 28-28 at the half and at 44-all with 8:25 to play. The Tar Heels went on a 9-2 run over the next 6:40, sparked by a three-pointer by Berry and a steal and dunk by Justin Jackson.

Berry averaged a team-high 17.0 points and was 17 for 24 from the floor, 7 for 10 from three-pointers and 10 from 10 from the free throw line over the three games en route to MVP honors.

FANTASTIC FINISHES

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

March 15, 1969

Charles Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

UNC 73, Duke 71
January 19, 1974

UNC 96, Duke 92 (OT)
March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak in-bounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 25-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

The UNC bench jumps for joy as Charlie Scott hits the game-winner as time expires, giving the Tar Heels an 87-85 win over Davidson in the 1969 NCAA East Regional Final.

UNC 101, Wake Forest 100 (OT)
March 6, 1975

Carolina trailed Wake Forest, 90-82, with 50 seconds remaining in the ACC quarterfinals. Phil Ford hit a 20-footer with 43 ticks left and Mitch Kupchak followed a Deacon turnover with a driving layup with 34 seconds to play. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

UNC 70, N.C. State 69

Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and led by 17 with 10:30 to play, but the Wolfpack got hot. Kenny Matthews hit a jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. Dudley Bradley missed a jumper for the Tar Heels and State grabbed the rebound with 16 seconds left. Reynolds Coliseum celebrated. But Bradley stole the ball from Clyde Austin at mid-court and drove in for the game-winning dunk and a 70-69 triumph.

FANTASTIC FINISHES

James Worthy had 28 points, but it was the freshman Jordan who took a pass from Jimmy Black and made the game-winning shot. Worthy stole an errant pass from Hoya forward Fred Brown in the final seconds to clinch the title.

UNC 70, Tulane 68 (3 OT)
November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Michael Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Tar Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan stole the inbounds pass and hit a 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina prevailed, 70-68, in triple overtime.

UNC 64, Virginia 63
February 10, 1983

Carolina trailed second-ranked Virginia by 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with 4:12 remaining. Jimmy Braddock hit a three-pointer and Matt Doherty and Sam Perkins each converted one-and-ones to close the gap to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Virginia held the ball and Perkins was forced to foul Ralph Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Michael Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled up-court, Jordan stole the ball and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a last-second shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound in front of a delirious Carmichael crowd.

UNC 75, Maryland 74
January 9, 1985

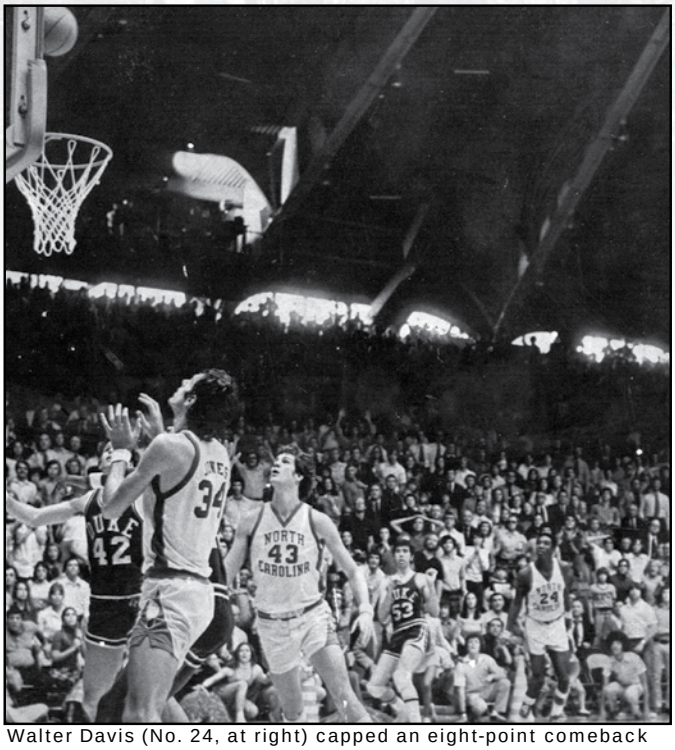
UNC 60, Notre Dame 58
March 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels had to play at Notre Dame. Tied at 58 with 1:38 left, the Irish held for the last shot. Irish point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home, then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.



Walter Davis (No. 24, at right) capped an eight-point comeback in the final 17 seconds of regulation with this 25-foot shot at the buzzer on March 2, 1974. Carolina went on to defeat Duke, 96-92, in overtime.

UNC 96, Syracuse 93 (OT)
November 21, 1987

Undermanned Carolina faced top-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic and the Orange led by 14 with 15:39 to play. Carolina stormed back and sent the game into overtime when freshman Pete Chilcutt hit a turnaround jumper at the horn to tie the game at 85.

UNC 80, James Madison 79
November 24, 1989

The Tar Heels trailed Lefty Driesell's Dukes, 79-70, with less than a minute to play in the Maui Classic. An offensive rebound basket by Rick Fox and a steal and three-pointer by Hubert Davis cut the deficit to four with 48 seconds to play. Pete Chilcutt hit a three to pull within one with 10 ticks remaining. The Tar Heels had one last chance after a JMU player stepped out of bounds and King Rice tossed an off-balance runner from the top of the key that banked in at the buzzer.

UNC 79, Oklahoma 77
March 17, 1990

The Tar Heels trailed No. 1 ranked Oklahoma, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away. The Sooners answered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, but King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot, but missed the second. The rebound went out-of-bounds to Carolina with eight seconds to play. Fox hit a driving bank shot off the glass as time expired that gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive trip to the Sweet 16.

February 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off No. 1 Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer. The comeback was the largest in Tar Heel history. UNC trailed by 20 with 14:49 to play and by 11 with 6:17 to go before a 10-0 run cut the Deacs lead to 75-74. Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws with 38 seconds left. Reese set up the final possession with a steal with 16 seconds to go. He drove the lane and missed, but grabbed his own rebound and launched a 12-footer at the buzzer for the win.

UNC 82, Florida State 77
January 27, 1993

The Seminoles jumped out to a 45-28 advantage at the half and later extended the lead to as many as 21 points. Carolina trailed 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. The Tar Heels, keyed by a pair of three-pointers by Henrik Rodl, then ran off 15 straight points and Eric Montross hit a jump hook with 1:59 left to cut the FSU lead to 77-76. George Lynch stole a crosscourt pass by Charlie Ward and slammed the ball home to give Carolina a 78-77 lead. Clutch foul shooting by Donald Williams sealed the 82-77 victory. The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

1993 NCAA Tournament

The Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 UC lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Carolina took a 42-36 halftime lead and went on to win the title, 77-71. Williams finished with 25 points and hit four free throws in the final minutes to secure the win.

March 12, 1994

The Tar Heels erased a five-point deficit in the final 1:15 of regulation to down the Demon Deacons, 86-84, in overtime in the ACC semifinals. Leading 81-78, Wake Forest chose to foul Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second, but grabbed the rebound. He found Dante Calabria, whose baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left tied the score at 81. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse took a pass from Phelps and hit a driving shot to win the game, 86-84. Carolina went on to win its 13th ACC title the next day with a 73-66 victory over Virginia.

January 28, 1995

Winston-Salem was the stage for a battle between sophomore centers Rasheed Wallace and Tim Duncan. Duncan had 18 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks, and Wallace countered with 17 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks. Carolina trailed Wake Forest 53-43 with 6:39 left. Strong inside play from Wallace and the three-point shooting of Jeff McInnis and Donald Williams brought UNC to within one at 61-60. Williams then hit a running one-hander from the right side of the lane with 5.5 seconds remaining for a 62-61 win.

UNC 102, Duke 100 (2 OT)
February 2, 1995

The Tar Heels jumped out to a 26-9 lead on a spectacular reverse dunk by Jerry Stackhouse over two Blue Devils. Duke pulled within five at halftime and led by as many as 12 in the second half. UNC battled back from a nine-point deficit with 6:18 remaining to force overtime. The Tar Heels led by nine, but Duke made three three-pointers, including a 30-footer from Jeff Capel at the buzzer, to knot the score at 95 and force a second overtime. Donald Williams hit a pair of 12-footers in the second OT and Jeff McInnis had a steal and lay-up with under a minute to play to give Carolina a 102-100 win. Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace each had 25 points and Williams added 24 in one of the greatest college basketball games ever played.

Steve Wojciechowski hit a three-pointer for a 72-68 Duke lead with 1:13 to play, but Shammond Williams countered with a three of his own 15 seconds later. Duke turned the ball over and the Tar Heels nearly returned the favor, but Williams forced a jump ball after a scramble. Possession favored UNC and Jeff McInnis drove into the lane and fed Serge Zwikker, whose shot was blocked by Greg Newton. Dante Calabria tipped the loose ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Ricky Price's baseline

UNC 59, N.C. State 56
January 15, 1997

The Tar Heels began ACC play with three straight losses for the first time in history. Carolina led 36-28 at halftime, but did not score a field goal in the second half until the 8:09 mark and had just two baskets in the first 18 minutes of the second stanza. The Wolfpack led 56-47 with 2:00 to play, but the Tar Heels went on a 12-0 run to finish the game. Antawn Jamison began the rally by forcing a steal and Shammond Williams hit a lay-up to pull within seven. Williams hit a three-pointer and Jamison added a lay-up to pull within two points with 50 seconds to play. Trailing by one with 28 seconds left, Carolina fouled and State missed the front end of a one-and-one. The Tar Heels went ahead for good with 12 seconds to play as Ademola Okulaja fed Jamison on the low block for a lay-up. Vince Carter stole the inbounds pass after the go-ahead score to secure the win.

UNC 45, N.C. State 44
February 12, 1997

This was the lowest scoring output in a win during Dean Smith's 36 years as head coach. The Tar Heels trailed 28-19 at the half, but pulled within 42-41 with 7:25 to play. Neither team scored until a Damon Thornton basket with 2:03 left gave State a 44-41 advantage. Serge Zwikker scored for UNC to make it 44-43. With 12.3 seconds to play, Antawn Jamison forced a turnover and freshman point guard Ed Cota drove to the left baseline and lofted a floater which found the net with 4.5 seconds remaining. Vince Carter blocked State's last shot at the buzzer to clinch the victory.

UNC 107, Ga. Tech 100 (2 OT)
February 8, 1998

The Tar Heels let a seven-point lead slip away in the final minute of regulation, but Shammond Williams put on an awesome three-point shooting display as Carolina prevailed, 107-100, in double-overtime in Atlanta. Williams forced a second overtime with a pair of free throws with six seconds left in the first extra period. In the second OT, Williams scored 12 of his career-high 42 points, including two three-pointers.

UNC 74, Tennessee 69
March 24, 2000

Carolina was unranked for the first time in 10 years and entered the NCAA Tournament as a No. 8 seed. The Tar Heels trailed 10th-ranked Tennessee, 39-36, at halftime of the regional semifinal. The Vols led by two when UNC center Brendan Haywood fouled out with 8:03 left and led, 64-57, with 4:48 to play. But freshman Joseph Forte hit a three-pointer and Jason Capel had a steal and lay-up to make it 64-62 with 3:41 left. Ed Cota tied the game on a driving lay-up and followed with a jumper to give UNC the lead with 1:59 left. Forte, Julius Peppers and Cota each hit two free throws in the final 0:34 to cap a 15-3 Tar Heel run and a 74-69 win.

UNC 70, Wake Forest 69

a three-pointer with just over six seconds to play. The Huskies would go on to win the national championship. It was Roy Williams' first win as UNC's head coach over a No. 1 ranked team.

UNC 75, Duke 73
March 6, 2005

Carolina trailed, 73-64, after Blue Devil forward Lee Melchionni hit a three with 3:03 to play. But the Tar Heels outscored Duke, 11-0, the rest of the way to clinch the regular-season ACC title. Trailing by two with less than 30 seconds to play, David Noel stripped Daniel Ewing of the ball and Raymond Felton grabbed the loose ball and called timeout. On the ensuing possession, Felton hit the first of two free throws, Marvin Williams rebounded his missed second free throw and scored the go-ahead basket with 17 seconds to play. Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 24 rebounds.

UNC 75, Illinois 70
April 4, 2005

Final Four MVP Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 10 rebounds, while Raymond Felton's and Marvin Williams' late heroics gave Roy Williams his first NCAA title. Marvin Williams broke a 70-all tie with a tip-in basket with 1:27 to play. Leading 72-70, Felton, who earlier hit a three-pointer to break a 65-65 tie, stole an Illini pass with 31 seconds to play and hit three of four free throws to cap the win.

UNC vs. Clemson
2007-08 Regular Season

Carolina beat Clemson in a pair of close games during the 2007-08 regular season. In the first meeting on Jan. 6, 2008, in Clemson, Wayne Ellington hit a three-pointer with 0.4 seconds remaining in overtime to give UNC a 90-88 win. Ellington scored a career-high 36 points in the game, connecting on five three-pointers. The final shot by Ellington marked UNC's first late game-winner since David Noel rattled in a three-pointer with 1.8 seconds left on Nov. 19, 2005, to beat Gardner-Webb in the Smith Center and marked Carolina's first overtime win under head coach Roy Williams.

In the return matchup in Chapel Hill on Feb. 10, Tyler Hansbrough scored 13 of his 39 points in the two overtime periods as Carolina rallied from 15 points down to beat the Tigers, 103-93, in double overtime. The Tar Heels trailed by 11 points with 3:12 left to play in regulation before ring scoring nine straight points to cut the lead to 79-77. Quentin Thomas hit a driving layup to force the first overtime and UNC eventually won in the second extra stanza.

Jan. 28, 2009

Ty Lawson sank a game-winning three-pointer as time expired to beat Florida State, 80-77, in Tallahassee in a game in which UNC led by 11 at the half, but trailed by as many as five with less than seven minutes to play. Danny Green's steal and three-point play tied the game at 77 with 1:12 to play, then Tyler Hansbrough forced a turnover by Toney Douglas with 3.2 seconds remaining. Hansbrough inbounded the ball to Lawson, who raced from his own free throw line to just outside the top of the key before launching a floater that found the bottom of the net as the buzzer rang.

Bob Donnan

Marvin Williams' three-point play clinched the 2005 win over Duke.

2011 ACC Tournament

The Tar Heels trailed by 19 points against Miami in the quarterfinals but rallied for a 61-59 win on a buzzer-beating layup by Tyler Zeller after a drive and pass from freshman point guard Kendall Marshall. It was the largest comeback by UNC in ACC Tournament history. The Hurricanes led, 53-34, with 9:51 to play but Carolina scored 27 of the final 33 points.

The next day, fourth-seeded Clemson led the #1 seed Tar Heels, 38-28, at the half before UNC rallied again for a 92-87 win in overtime. The 10-point halftime deficit is the largest Carolina has ever overcome to win at the ACC Tournament. Harrison Barnes scored 40 points, including 14 in overtime, to tie the ACC freshman scoring record and set a record for freshman scoring in an ACC Tournament game.

February 26, 2014

Marcus Paige scored 31 of his 35 points in the second half and overtime including a coast-to-coast game-winning layup with 0.9 seconds to play. Paige outdueled eventual ACC Player of the Year T.J. Warren, who led the Pack with 36. UNC trailed by double digits in the first half and by six points both late in regulation and in extra time. Paige hit seven threes and J.P. Tokoto had 16 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC 75, Kentucky 73
March 26, 2017

Luke Maye came off the bench to score a career-high 17 points and hit the game-winning jumper with 0.3 seconds left to beat Kentucky, 75-73, in the NCAA South Regional championship in Memphis. The Tar Heels avenged a 103-100 defeat to the Wildcats earlier in the season. The teams came into the game with a combined 244 NCAA Tournament wins, most ever by two teams in an NCAA Tournament game. All-America forward Justin Jackson led all scorers with 19 points and Kennedy Meeks grabbed a career-best 17 rebounds. Kentucky's Malik Monk tied the game with seven seconds to play on a three-pointer, but Meeks quickly got the ball inbounds to Theo Pinson, who raced upcourt and fed Maye. His 19-footer from the left wing sent UNC to its record 20th Final Four.

April 2, 2022

Caleb Love scored 22 of his game-high 28 points in the second half in Carolina's 81-77 win over Duke in the national semifinals in New Orleans. Love hits the signature shot of the game, a three-pointer with 24 seconds to play to give UNC a 78-74 lead. It was the first time in 258 all-time meetings the Tar Heels and Blue Devils played in the NCAA Tournament, and it was Mike Krzyzewski's final game as Duke head coach.

UNC 89, Ohio State 84 (OT)
December 17, 2022

Carolina trailed Ohio State by 10 points midway through the second half in the CBS Sports Classic. RJ Davis tied the game at 72 with 2:10 to play but Brice Sensabaugh gave the Buckeyes the lead with two seconds to play. UNC called two timeouts and advanced the ball into the frontcourt with 1.2 seconds remaining. Leaky Black inbounded the ball to Pete Nance, who hit a turnaround jumper as time expired to even the game at 79 and force overtime. In the extra period the Tar Heels held Ohio State to 2 of 10 field goals as UNC won, 89-84. Armando Bacot led UNC with 28 points and 15 rebounds. Nance's shot marked the first time a Tar Heel made a field goal with no time remaining to send a game to overtime since Pete Chilcutt vs. Syracuse on Nov. 21, 1987.

COACHING HISTORY

FRANK McGUIRE (1952-61)

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS
✓ Is the only coach in history to win ACC championships at two different schools.
✓ Is a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame
✓ Coached Carolina to the 1957 NCAA championship
✓ Was a three-time national coach of the year.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-70, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

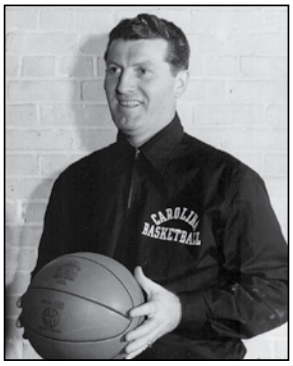
McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.



McGuire led the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title.

In 2013, he was inducted into the N.C. Sports Hall of Fame and in 2021 he was posthumously inducted into the A STEP UP Assistant Coaches Hall of Fame. Guthridge died in May 2015.

CREDENTIALS

Media seating in the Smith Center is located in section 212. Seats will be prioritized for media who regularly cover Carolina Basketball, the visiting team and national media.

Credential requests may be made online. Email Steve Kirschner at stevekirschner@unc.edu for the link where you may submit your request.

Single-game requests should be made at least 14 days prior to a scheduled game, especially if you want a parking pass mailed to you.

All photo/TV passes will be issued on a game-by-game basis. There are no season photo/TV passes.

Approved credentials may be picked up at media will call at Smith Center Entrance D, which will open 90 minutes before the scheduled starting time. Entrance D is closest to the reserved parking lot behind the natatorium and the Smith Center/basketball offices.

All briefcases, computer bags and photo equipment are subject to search.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

The media work room is located on the ground floor adjacent to the visiting team's locker room. Seats are assigned. Overflow seats are available in the hall outside the media room. Media may also choose to work from their seat in section 212.

MEALS

Meals are provided at most games. Check with Steve Kirschner in advance if you have questions. Soft drinks and water are available while supplies last. There is a beverage cooler located just outside the media workroom.

Photo spots are assigned by half. Note your assigned seat may change by half. Credentials for photographers and videographers will be issued on a game-by-game basis and will be numbered to match the space on the baseline where they are assigned to shoot.

Workspace for photographers and videographers will be available in or just outside the media work room on the ground floor adjacent to the visiting team's locker room.

ARENA WiFi

Wireless Internet access is available in the arena. Instructions for logging on will be emailed to credentialed media. Please do not publicize the network or password for WiFi access. Live stats are available at UNC.statbroadcast.com.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is located in the Bowles Lot on Skipper Bowles Drive. Parking, if requested and approved at least 14 days before the game, will either be mailed to you or you may pick up at the Athletic Communications office in advance. If you make your request fewer than 14 days before a scheduled game, we are unable to mail you the parking. To get a parking pass you would need to either pick up in person in advance or provide us your Fed Ex number. Please note, you must have a parking pass to enter the media lot on the day of a game. You can't park first and then get your parking pass at our office.

GPS Directions: Skipper Bowles Lot, S-11, UNC campus (there is no street address number for this lot).

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Carolina head coach Hubert Davis will conduct a postgame press conference in the media workroom. UNC players will be available for interviews in the team dining room just off the home tunnel.

Interviews with the visiting team at the Smith Center will be handled on a per-game basis. The visiting team may use the press room for an interview with the head coach, but it may choose to do so via Zoom or make its coach and players available for questions outside their locker room.

NON-GAMEDAY INTERVIEWS

Throughout the season, Davis and players will be available a day or two before select games. The schedule of these sessions will be updated throughout the season in UNC's media game notes.

Interview requests should be made through the athletic communications office. Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Coach Davis. Due to contractual obligations, Davis is unable to participate in live radio call-in shows.

Media should direct player interview requests to Matt Bowers (mattbowers@unc.edu, 919-619-7021). Player interviews typically occur before practice. Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days.

ACC COACHES ZOOM

Beginning in January, Coach Davis will be available most Mondays for 10 minutes on the ACC media Zoom. Coaches do not participate if their teams play that evening.
